1. The following are comments that some Brazilians who support politicians who promote the extermination of indigenous people in Brazil wrote to me and my responses to each of them:

realtor.yanko: - @ hermesig2 Well, just because you call human fetuses simply zygotes or embryos, we already know how superficial and cold your thinking is about our species from a macro point of view. Now, you, like every progressive person, do not talk about the Yanomami murdered within Venezuela during the Bolsonaro Government or the recurrent deaths of Yanomami within Brazil, already under the current Government. In other words, it is always the same selective and protective discourse towards the Prisoner who is now reinstated in power.

realtor.yanko 4 h

@hermesig2 Bom. Só pelo fato de você chamar Fetos Humanos de apenas Zigotos ou Embriões, já sabemos o quão rasteiro e frio é o seu pensamento sobre nossa espécie do ponto de vista macro. Agora, você como todo metido a progressista, não fala do Yanomamis mortos dentro da Venezuela no Governo Bolsonaro e nem nas mortes recorrentes de Yanomamis dentro do Brasil, já no atual Governo. Ou seja, é sempre o mesmo discursinho seletivista e protetivo ao Presidiário que ora está reempoderado no poder.

My response to realtor.yanko: -Believing that zygote, embryo and fetus are the same is ignorance. Zygote, embryo and fetus are different stages of pregnancy in both humans and animals of other species. In my free books I denounce how both the right and the left cause injustice against indigenous peoples, but the right is worse because it promotes hatred and openly supports genocide. By the way, you are against abortion, and in many parts of the Bible your god orders the killing of children and pregnant women, all pro-lifers are hypocrites who worship this god, and this god and the devil do not exist, only are a Jewish invention. And it is worse to promote hatred and genocide than to steal. Hate speech and genocide are more serious crimes than theft. And many Brazilians are hypocrites, they are against abortion while they hate and support the massacres of indigenous peoples, and they vote for politicians who harm them, like those who approved the Temporary Framework.

The Judeo-Christian god and the devil do not exist, that god and the devil are just a Jewish invention, and it is contradictory that pro-lifers say they are against abortion and at the same time worship a god who commands the killing of children and women pregnant, and in case anyone does not believe me that these things are written in the Bible, I challenge you to take a Bible and look up these chapters for yourself:

Isaiah chapter 13, verse 18: They will sweep away the young with bows, they will not have mercy on the fruit of the womb, nor will their eyes have mercy on the children.

Hosea chapter 13, verse 16: Samaria will be desolate, because she rebelled against her God; They will fall by the sword; Their children will be dashed to pieces, and their pregnant women will be cut open.

Psalms chapter 137, verses 9: Blessed is he who takes and dashes his little ones against the rock.

The fictional god invented by the Jews supports human slavery:

Exodus chapter 21, verse 7: If anyone sells his daughter into slavery, she will not be freed like male slaves.

I asked the believers in this god:

Do you think it's okay for a father to sell his own daughter as a slave because his god says so in the Bible?

Exodus chapter 21, verses 20 and 21: If someone hits his or her male or female slave with a stick, and they die as a result of that blow, they will be punished. However, if the slave survives a day or two, the attacker will not be punished, since the slave was his property.

Colossians, chapter 3, verse 22: Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything, not only to gain their favor when they are watching you, but with a sincere heart and out of respect for the Lord.

1 Timothy chapter 1, verse 6: Let all who are under the yoke of slavery consider their masters worthy of all respect, so that the name of God and our teaching will not be dishonored.

The fictitious god invented by the Jews says in his word that if a woman is raped, she must be forced to marry her rapist and sell her to the rapist for 50 silver coins. I ask the believers in that god:

If you have a daughter and your daughter is raped, would you sell her to the rapist for 50 silver coins and force her to marry her rapist to fulfill the word of your imaginary god?

Deuteronomy chapter 22, verses 28 and 29: if a man finds a virgin girl without a commitment to marriage, and forces her to sleep with him, and they are discovered, then the man will have to give the girl's father fifty silver coins ; and, since he has dishonored her, he will have to take her as his wife, and he will not be able to divorce her as long as he lives.

In Deuteronomy chapter 24, verse 16: Parents cannot be put to death for what their children have done, nor children for what their parents have done, but each one will die for his own sin.

But, in Isaiah chapter 14, verse 21: prepare to kill the children for the crimes their parents committed.

In Leviticus chapter 1, verse 3: If the animal you offer as a burnt offering is your livestock, it must be a perfect bull.

But, in Isaiah chapter 1, verse 11: I have had enough of your burnt offerings of rams and the fat of calves; The blood of bulls, rams and goats disgusts me.

How can a god who contradicts himself in his word (the Bible) be real and perfect?

And those teachings of the fictional character of Jesus Christ to love your enemies, turn the other cheek, not judge and forgive everything defend those who do harm and are an insult to dignity, these teachings mean that those who do harm go unpunished.

And always the parts that believers in this god find convenient in the Bible: they never say that they are metaphors or symbolic and they never say that they are taken out of context, even if they mention one or two verses.

But, regarding the parts of the Bible that do not suit them, they always say that they are metaphors or symbolic, or that they are taken out of context.

Unfortunately, many indigenous people today have their minds colonized with these Judeo-Christian beliefs brought by European settlers or their minds colonized by New Age beliefs where they syncretize their own beliefs with Judeo-Christian beliefs in that Judeo-Christian god that condemns worshipping other gods and that condemns practicing magic in many parts of the Bible.

But, it is not the fault of the majority of indigenous people to have their minds colonized by Christian religions and the New Age, this is the fault of the majority who are not indigenous.

Many indigenous people are not aware that Judeo-Christian beliefs (biblical god, Jesus Christ, angels, devil, demons, saints and virgins) and the Bible were brought by European settlers who murdered them, and that most of the time Jesus Christ, angels, saints and virgins are represented as white Europeans.

Christianity is Social Darwinism because it teaches to hate those who do no harm and to hate the weakest or most vulnerable, while it defends those who do harm with those teachings of loving one's enemies, of not judging, of turning the other cheek and of forgiving everything that are totally disastrous.

Differences between a human zygote, a human embryo and a human fetus:

Differences between a cat zygote, a cat embryo and a cat fetus:

The majority of humanity is ignorant, believing that from conception there is a fetus formed with a nervous system, while this same majority of humanity harms lives that do feel by having the nervous system formed.

carlosdiegourbanomelo: -@hermesig2 you no longer deceive me with that talk, and this eco-Nazism leads people to become savages because the Indians, despite having the entire forest at their disposal, many were barbarians, eco-Nazism will take us to this era again.

My responses to carlosdiegourbanomelo :

hermesig2: - @carlosdiegourbanomelo white ethnic groups such as the Celts, Vikings, Slavs and others also practiced human sacrifice and were barbarians, the Romans enjoyed the torture of humans in the Roman Colosseum. There were white Christians who in the Catholic inquisition and the Protestant inquisition liked to defame, insult, torture and murder other humans, they were barbarians and used very cruel instruments of torture such as the iron lady, the head crusher, the cradle of Judas, he crushes thumbs and others. When European settlers invaded this continent and waged war against indigenous people who did not submit to their rule, European settlers in those invasions and wars murdered indigenous children, meaning that European settlers also committed infanticide of indigenous children. And many justify their hatred of present-day indigenous people with things that other past indigenous people did and that most present-day indigenous people do not do.

The human sacrifice of the blood eagle practiced by the Vikings:

Human sacrifices practiced by the Celts and their priests called the druids:

Some instruments of torture that white Christians used during the Catholic inquisition and the Protestant inquisition to force their victims to confess anything when they defamed them, which are found in museums in Europe, which are mentioned in the same books written by inquisitors and in the same writings of the inquisition, but the defenders of Christianity call the Black Legend:

Murder of indigenous children (infanticide) committed by the European colonizers when they invaded this continent and waged war on the indigenous people who did not submit to domination, but thus they have the audacity to justify the hatred of the indigenous people with which some indigenous ethnic groups practiced infanticide:

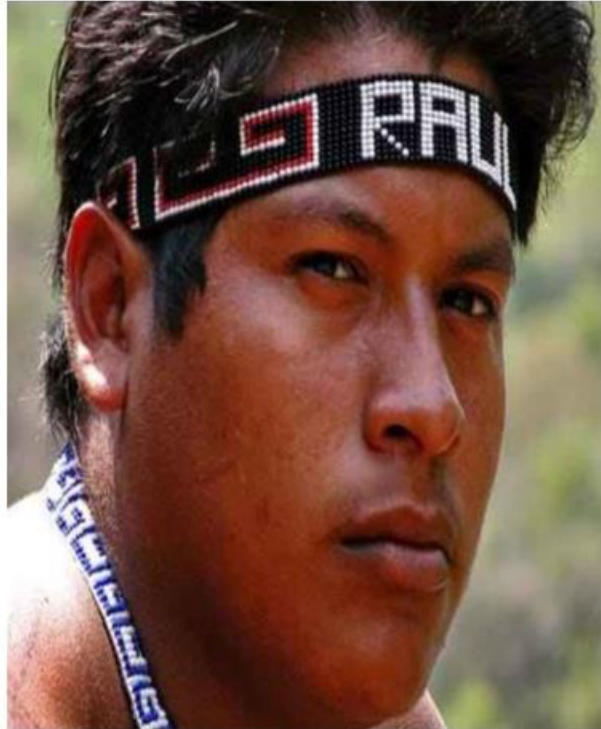

The Roman Colosseum where the Romans enjoyed the torture of other humans and the torture of animals of other species, and enjoyed seeing blood spilled from both humans and animals of other species, it seems that in white ethnic groups the sadistic instinct was always more present:

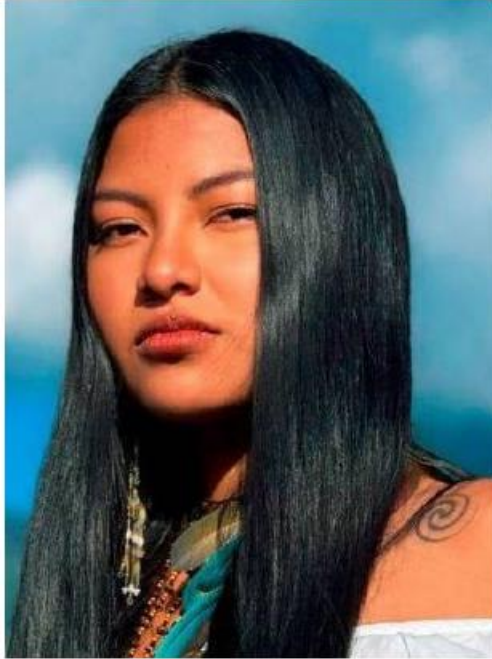

hermesig2: - @carlosdiegourbanomelo Nazism is the ideology that says that white people of Aryan ancestors (because all white ethnicities are of Indo-European or Eurasian origin from the Aryans of the Persian Empire who invaded and colonized India) are superior according to this ideology, and this is what the sick society of the West, you and the majority believe that for you white people are superior and for you European physical characteristics are beauty. If humans breathe contaminated air, they get sick and if humans drink contaminated water, they get sick, humans need clean air and clean water to live, humans need oxygen produced by trees, plants and microorganisms in the sea to live. Droughts kill humans, humans cannot live without nature, water and air pollution causes diseases to humans, but most humans, due to their Judeo-Christian beliefs, believe they can live without nature.

The physical characteristics of the indigenous people such as their reddish skin, their slanted or almond-shaped eyes and their radiant black hair are of great beauty:

Air pollution, water pollution and droughts that turn the earth into a desert caused by the majority of humanity, cause diseases and harm human life:

hermesig2: - @carlosdiegourbanomelo Most humans who are not indigenous due to their genetics are more selfish and individualistic, they only care about money and Western technology, and they place money and Western technology above life, they only think about themselves and that is why They are bad people, they don't care about collective well-being because they only think about their individual pleasure. And you and most of humanity are the kind of people who care more about knowing if there is life on other planets and that Judeo-Christian myth of heaven than about protecting life on this planet.

Now let's look at comments of hatred towards indigenous people from a large part of Brazilians who are not indigenous:

These types of comments of hatred towards indigenous people and where monsters want their extermination are very common on social networks such as Facebook, Instagram and Twitter, and on video platforms such as YouTube.

And these social networks and video platforms allow these comments, they do not delete them and they do not delete the accounts that make them, while if someone writes the same thing about a race that is not indigenous, they do delete the comments and they do delete the accounts immediately.

And also television, movies, video games, series and cartoons promote hatred of indigenous people and oppression of indigenous people.

As I have already mentioned many times, there are many mestizos with indigenous features who despise indigenous people, make hateful comments towards indigenous people and are also indifferent to what indigenous people suffer. And many mestizos with indigenous features who say that mestizaje is to improve the race, and that they prefer white and European.

There are cases of whites who commit crimes like rape and whites who are serial killers, and no one says that all whites are like that because of that.

Also, those who harm the indigenous people are never treated as savages, criminals and terrorists.

But, if the indigenous people defend themselves or take revenge, they are always treated as savages, criminals and terrorists by the damn majority, by the damn media like television, by the damn police, by the damn military, and by the damn politicians and even more so when they are right-wing or neoliberal.

But, if an indigenous person or a mestizo with indigenous features commits a crime, many cursed men and cursed women (because the majority are evil without distinction of sex) say that all indigenous people and that all mestizos with indigenous features are part of the Nicaraguans, Peruvians and Mexicans are like that.

It turns out that many mestizos with indigenous features despise indigenous people, but these mestizos also suffer hatred and contempt from many criollos and from many mestizos who have more European features, and this is what happens with many Costa Ricans in their treatment of Nicaraguans who have more indigenous features.

Otoniel Orozco Mendoza, a Nicaraguan national, was murdered with 14 bullets in Escazú, Costa Rica, by a neighbor named Eduardo Ramírez Zamora, who along with his damn wife are racists and xenophobes like many Costa Ricans:

Photos of the murderer named Eduardo Ramírez Zamora with his horrible wife:

The part of genetics that manifests itself in non-verbal language does influence behavior. All these types of people have physical features in common, looks in common and gestures in common, but political correctness and the ideology of equality deny this.

These people, like the majority, should be prohibited from reproducing and being sterilized, but human rights organizations say that they have the right to reproduce and form a family.

It is a crime that these types of people reproduce because they pass their genes of evil to the following generations and the majority of humanity is evil, even though they believe they are good because of their beliefs.

Most of the time, children do follow the behavior of their parents and the genetic influence with which they are born, very few of us make the exception, and since the probabilities of children repeating the same behavioral patterns of their parents are high, sometimes most should be prohibited from reproducing.

The truth is that the majority of humanity is evil regardless of sex, regardless of whether they are men or women. Someone or something should eliminate the majority, starting by eliminating those in power such as presidents, deputies, senators, royalty and other elites.

The majority of humanity deserves no mercy of any kind. And those in power and the majority are equal, because the people in power are in power because of the majority.

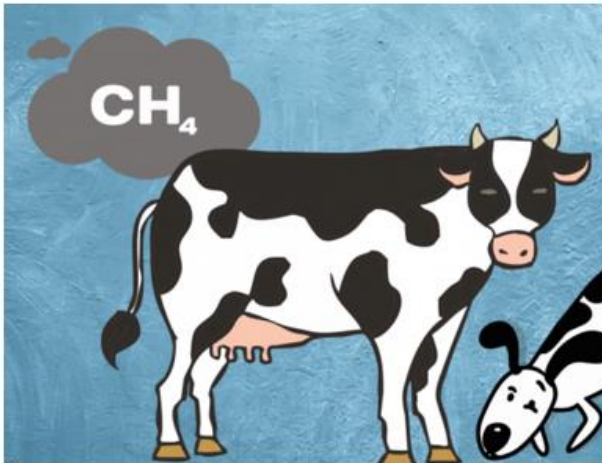

2. All the colonists, whether Spanish, Portuguese, English or French, committed the same atrocities against the indigenous people.

And yes there were wars between indigenous ethnic groups, but there were also wars between Europeans from different countries.

Some indigenous ethnic groups made human sacrifices, but white ethnic groups such as the Celts and Vikings also made human sacrifices, and Christianity did too when it tortured and murdered people in the inquisition.

European settlers were the ones who expanded livestock farming, which generates deforestation to make pastures, excessive emissions of methane, carbon dioxide, nitrous oxide and nitrogen throughout the world, and livestock farming is one of the main causes of climate change.

And European colonists expanded bullfighting, cockfighting and hunting for pleasure throughout the world in the colonization of this continent and Asia.

For all this, the consumption of red meat from animals brought by Europeans, the consumption of animal milk and dairy derivatives are a crime against the environment and against human life because the destruction of the environment affects human life, generates droughts and diseases.

The tastes of the majority cannot be above life, but since the majority is individualistic and selfish (and for this reason they are totally bad), they believe that their whims or tastes are above life.

But, unfortunately, because many indigenous people have their minds colonized, they do not know that cows and bulls were brought to this continent and to East Asia by European settlers, that the Amazons are destroyed by ranchers who raise these animals and that the cowboys were the ones who murdered indigenous people the most.

I repeat again that the fault that the majority of indigenous people have their minds colonized and do not know many things is not the fault of the indigenous people, it is the fault of the majority who are not indigenous.

Video Livestock farming, colonialism, climate change and capitalism:

<https://youtu.be/E7hob3JmNG8>

I am white, but I consider that white ethnic groups are bad by nature, and there are few exceptions, since before Christianity, white ethnic groups such as the Celts, Vikings, Greeks, Romans, Basques, Slavs and others hunted for pleasure without being a necessity to survive, the Romans practiced cockfighting, had cults related to bullfighting such as the bullfighting of the Greeks and Romans, the jumping of the bull of the Minoans, and the sacrifice of two white bulls of the Celts to their gods, and All this comes from the Mithraism of the Persians.

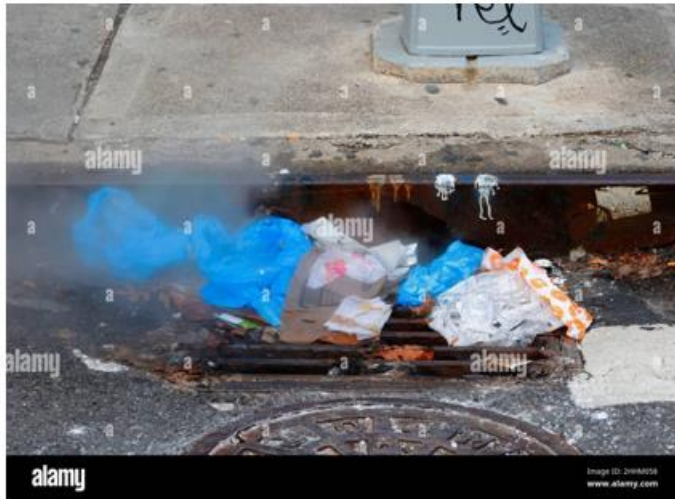

White ethnic groups are by nature more selfish, noisy, they do not value silence, they are more conceited and individualistic, and by nature they believe that dominating and subduing the weakest or most vulnerable is power, bravery, virility or strength from which arises harming animals for pleasure and harming indigenous people.

And mestizos, whether white or dark-skinned with indigenous features, have genetics from white ethnic groups and the majority are white in their way of being, thinking, tastes and vision of the world.

And what they call development, civilization and progress is simply the pollution and destruction of the environment, and for this reason indigenous ethnic groups continue to suffer extermination in the present as I denounce in my free books.

There are people who use the fact that the ancestors of indigenous ethnic groups come from East Asia to promote hatred of indigenous people, but white ethnic groups also originate from Asian ancestors, what happens is that indigenous people and white ethnic groups do not arise of the same Asian ancestors.

The indigenous ethnic groups have ancestors from East Asia (Siberia, China, the Philippines and Mongolia), while the white ethnic groups originate in the Middle East from the Persians and Western Asia, therefore, their origin is Indo-European or Eurasian.

It all begins when the Aryans (inhabitants of Iran) of the Persian Empire invade and colonize India, and subdue the Dravidians (the indigenous population of India), from here the Indo-Europeans or Eurasians emerge, then these Indo-Europeans expand throughout Europe giving rise to the white ethnic groups, and because the climate of Europe was colder, their skin lost melanin and became white, and they developed more body hair.

In fact, in Asian countries such as China, the Philippines, Mongolia and Siberia, people tend to have reddish skin (the same skin color as the indigenous ethnic groups of this continent), while in Japan, because it is a colder country, The people are white-skinned and taller, and the Japanese government supported the Nazi party in World War II.

The belief that light and darkness represent good and evil, and are enemies in war, comes from Western Asia from the Persians and then their descendants (white ethnic groups) inherited the same idea.

While, in East Asia with Taoism: light and darkness do not mean good and evil, light and darkness mean complementary forces of nature that make life possible (day and night, man and woman, heat and cold, summer and winter), and not enemies at war.

Hitler was an idiot because he believed that the Aryans were tall, white-skinned, blonde-haired, blue-eyed humans who came from Atlantis just like the neo-Nazis who believe that Jews are a race. Atlantis was just a fictional story by Plato just like the myth of the cave and Plato always made it very clear, but these New Agers took the story of Atlantis as if it were something real.

And Aryans were not even a race, Aryans means inhabitants of Iran, Iran means land of Aryans, but Hitler was an idiot who believed esoteric New Age nonsense, that's why he was a reader of the Ostara magazine promoted by the ariosophy that emerged from Theosophy.

OSTARA

Nr. 2
Der Weltkrieg als Rassenkampf der Dunklen gegen die Blonden
von J. Lanz-Liebenfels

Als Handschrift gedruckt, Wien 1927

Even this idiot Hitler even said that, since Japan supported the Nazis, the Japanese were also a people of Aryan origin. When the origin of the Japanese is not Indo-European or Eurasian, the origin of the Japanese is East Asia.

The idiot Hitler and the idiots of the Nazis did not know that Aryans were the inhabitants of Iran from the Persian Empire who had invaded and colonized India, giving rise to the Indo-Europeans or Eurasians who later expanded throughout Europe, giving rise to the white ethnic groups, and that at first most of these Aryans were not white.

The Aryans were not as brown as the Dravidians (indigenous inhabitants of India), but, they were not white either, the skin tone of these Aryans when they invaded India was a light tan like light cinnamon and their hair was black because they came from the Middle East.

I understand that white is not just the color of the skin and it is not just the color of the hair, and that the Aryans (inhabitants of Iran) were white in their way of being, way of thinking and vision of the world, but, the issue is that Hitler and the Nazis believed that Aryans were white in skin tone and had blonde hair.

The ancient Aryans, who spoke Indo-Iranian languages, were most closely related to the peoples of the Near East and Central Asia. Therefore, the image of the Aryans as having blonde hair and blue eyes does not correspond to the reality of the people of Indo-Iranian origin.

When the Aryans colonized India, they introduced a greater emphasis on bull and cow farming, and also introduced that caste system that, due to the theme of Social Darwinism, fascinated Hitler and the Nazis. In some branches of Hinduism created by the Aryans, cows are considered sacred, but they still consume milk and dairy products.

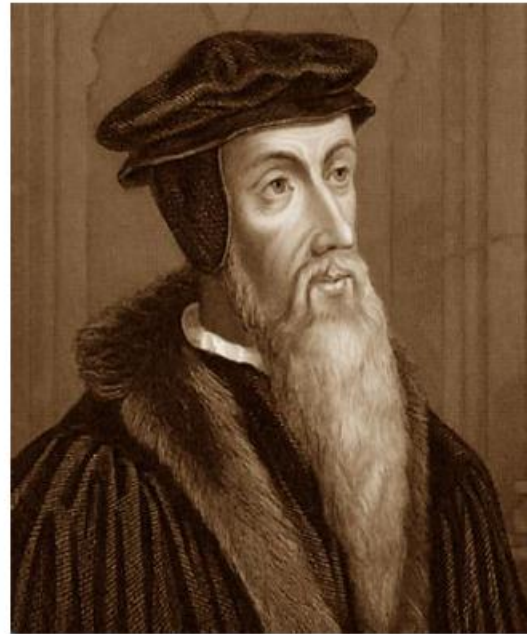

Also, the Aryans introduced to India the idea that light and darkness represent good and evil, and that they are enemies in war, fanaticism, and absolutism or polarization. Therefore, the white ethnic groups (Celts, Greeks, Romans, Slavs, Vikings and Nordics) who descended from these Indo-Europeans, inherited the same idea of considering light and darkness as warring enemies, which they reflect in the stories of their gods and absolutist or polarized thinking that gives rise to perfectionism.

Video The Origin Of The System:

https://youtu.be/nQnygBr_7RE

3. And the white ethnic groups like Vikings and Celts also made human sacrifices, before the Europeans arrived on this continent between European countries they waged war, and Christianity tortured and murdered people in the inquisition and used torture like the iron lady, the head crusher, the cradle of Judas, the thumb crusher and many others.

The inquisition existed to impose the Christian religions, both in the Catholic inquisition and in the Protestant inquisition, the inquisitors in the case of the Catholic religion were led by the pope, and in the case of the Protestant inquisition they were led by pastors such as John Calvin.

Both in the countries of Europe where the Catholic religion was the official religion and in the countries of Europe where the Protestant religion was the official religion, the Catholic inquisition and the Protestant inquisition had the support of the royalty (kings, queens, princes and princesses) who provided their soldiers to capture the victims and resources to build the torture instruments.

These royalty, as part of their Roman, Celtic, Viking, Saxon and Slavic genetics, always practiced hunting for pleasure from their beginnings to the present, and they finance bullfighting as happens with the Spanish royalty.

Therefore, the majority of European genetics are carriers of evil, and there are few exceptions.

Let's take Asia as an example, which proves how when white ethnic groups emerge they are more evil:

As Japan is colder, the Japanese are taller and whiter due to the environment, and in World War II, the Japanese government supported the Nazis, but, in addition, Japan was at war with China.

In Japan, part of its culture is social rigidity, military expansion and racism, which are aspects they share with Europe, and also, the indigenous Ainu ethnic group suffers discrimination and racism in Japan.

And I'm not saying that indigenous ethnic groups are perfect, but they are better than the majority. To me, the majority doesn't seem good and I always felt different from the majority.

Also, Hispanists claim that the crimes committed by the Spanish colonizers are a lie invented by Freemasonry to destroy Spain, destroy the Catholic Church and eliminate the whites through replacement.

But, all the presidents, soldiers and politicians who made hate speeches against the indigenous people, who caused the indigenous people to be expelled from their territories and who caused the majority of indigenous people to be murdered, such as Domingo Faustino Sarmiento, John Milton Chivington, George Washington, Andrew Jackson, Julius Popper and John Sullivan belonged to Freemasonry.

And all these Freemasons belonged to Christian religions: Domingo Faustino Sarmiento was Catholic, John Milton Chivington belonged to the Christian Methodist Church, George Washington belonged to the Christian Episcopal Church, Andrew Jackson belonged to the Christian Presbyterian Church, John Sullivan was Catholic and in the Case of Julius Popper was Jewish.

Those who hate the indigenous people affirm that the indigenous ethnic groups themselves waged war against each other to justify their hatred of the indigenous people.

But, among the white Europeans themselves, they waged war against each other before colonizing this continent, some examples are:

Hundred Years' War (1337-1453): conflict between England and France.

Thirteen Years' War (1474-1487): conflict between Spain and Portugal for control of the territory of Guinea.

War of the Castilian Succession (1475-1479): conflict between Spain and Portugal over the succession to the throne of Spain.

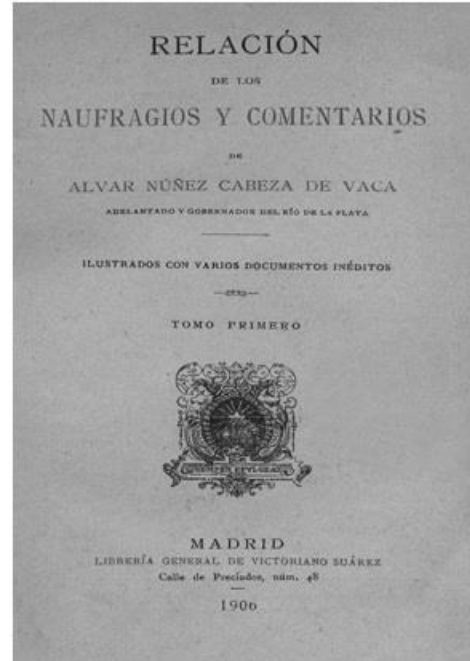

Anglo-Spanish War (1585-1604): conflict between England and Spain due to the religious and political differences of the time.

4. All the colonizers, whether Spanish, Portuguese, English or French, accepted that they waged war on the indigenous people when they did not submit and that they killed hundreds or thousands of indigenous people.

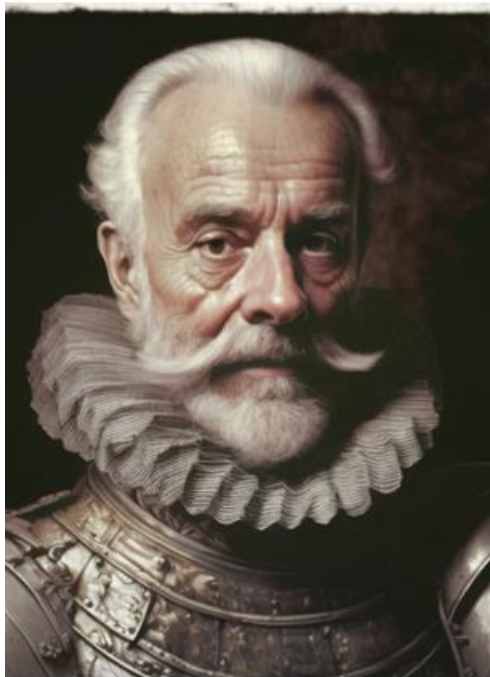

No colonizer ever denied that if the indigenous people did not submit they would wage war on them and kill them, only these defenders of colonization do that in the present.

In the book titled: Shipwrecks and comments. Written by the colonizer Álvaro Núñez Cabeza de Vaca and published in 1542, in chapter V they comment on how they fought against the natives (indigenous people) and captured five or six alive who kept them as prisoners to get food.

In the book: True history of the conquest of New Spain. Written by the colonizer Bernal Díaz del Castillo and published in 1632.

In excerpts from the book this is written: -It was the first war that we had in the company of Cortés in New Spain (...) and we went to see the dead that were in the countryside and there were more than eight hundred. Then we buried two soldiers. We thanked God very much for having given us that accomplished victory.

The text refers to the Battle of Centla where the indigenous people of the Mayan-Chontal ethnic group were defeated, only two Spanish soldiers died in this battle, this means that all the other dead, which were more than eight hundred, were indigenous.

Another thing that Hispanists do is affirm that the hateful and cruel treatment of the indigenous people by encomenderos and colonizers represented in the Kingsborough Codex, painted in 1554, and in the Osuna Codex of 1565, and the Aperramiento Codex of 1560, according to them they are part of a conspiracy against the Catholic Church and against Spain.

If what those codices contained were lies, the colonizers and encomenderos of those times would have expressed it, but they did not do so, only the Hispanicists of the present do that.

At present, indigenous people continue to suffer hatred, contempt, invasion of territories, torture and massacres with the complicity of a majority that remains indifferent and silent.

The following are excerpts from letters from the Spanish colonizer named Pedro de Valdivia:

To Emperor Charles V (La Serena, September 4, 1545): - The Christians became so encouraged by what their leader put them in, that, even though they were all wounded, Mr. Santiago favored them, that the Indians were defeated, and they killed a large number of them.

To Emperor Charles V (La Serena, September 4, 1545): - I went out with all the people, who came very well equipped and on horseback, to fulfill my word, and I went to look for the Indians, and when I arrived at their forts I found them fleeing. all, taking the side of Mauli towards the many people, leaving all their towns burned and abandoned the best piece of land in the world, which does not seem to have ever had an Indian in it.

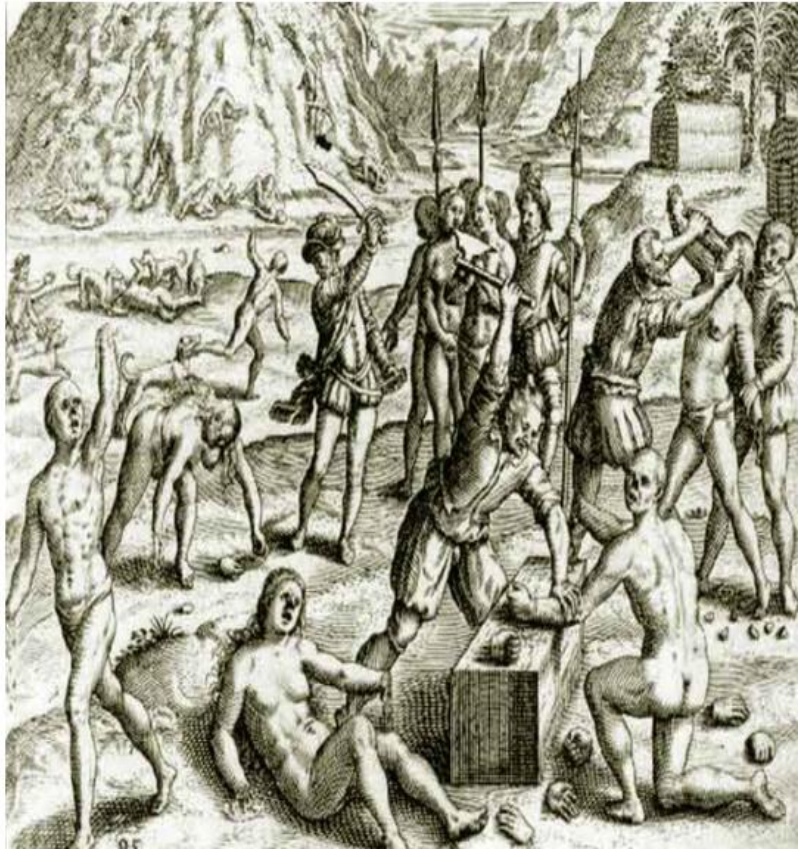

To Hernando Pizarro (La Serena, September 4, 1545): - The captain and his soldiers were so good at fighting all day long and they were all wounded, gaining courage when night came, that they defeated the Indians and killed countless of them.

To his representatives at court (Santiago, October 15, 1550): - They attacked the Indians with such spirit that they defeated them, and they fled and were killing in the area all that night; And when I found out, I turned around and rebuilt the city.

To his representatives at court (Santiago, October 15, 1550): -Anyway, I broke them, and they fled and we killed their captain and up to two hundred Indians.

To his representatives at court (Santiago, October 15, 1550): - Here, my field master coming ahead, he destroyed more than two thousand Indians.

To his representatives at court (Santiago, October 15, 1550): - Indians whose right hands and noses I had cut off.

When the settlers cut off the hands and noses of some indigenous people, it was a way of frightening the fleeing indigenous people who did not submit to their domination, and to tell them that if they did not surrender and submit they would do the same to them.

And in the same way, all the colonizers wrote letters and books where they accepted that when the indigenous people did not convert to Christianity, not submit to the kings of Europe, they fled and did not surrender in peace to the colonizers to serve them as slaves, turning the other cheek, forgiving them everything and loving their enemies: they always made war on them and tore them to pieces.

In the end, the colonists themselves accepted that many indigenous people submitted to domination, became Christians and submitted to the authority of royalty because they knew that if they did not do so, they and their children would be killed.

And the thing is that when the colonizers killed adult indigenous men and adult indigenous women, they also killed their children, regardless of whether they were small children, since the colonists were not going to take care of children of a race that they considered inferior, and in addition they were all. The settlers believed that their Judeo-Christian god gave them the land and that the indigenous people were soulless beings.

And another thing: the settlers accepted that they used hunting dogs to chase indigenous people who did not submit or who committed what they call sodomy, which is what they call homosexuality, obviously to train these dogs they gave them meat from murdered indigenous people and many Sometimes the bodies of indigenous children from the territories they invaded or the children of the indigenous people on whom they waged war, but they have the audacity to justify their hatred of the indigenous people by stating that some ethnic groups practiced infanticide.

It is like when they deny that the inquisition committed atrocities and even claim that it was a fair court, when everything is accepted in the writings of the inquisition and in the books that the inquisitors themselves wrote. Furthermore, these people say that Christians were incapable of lying, when if you read the books written by inquisitors they wrote many fanciful things and many stupid things.

Furthermore, the torture instruments used by the inquisition are in the same museums in Europe.

From the first moment when these people began to use the phrase Black Legend to affirm that Christianity did not commit crimes and atrocities, I realized that all this is a defense of Christianity, and even more so when religious leaders such as pastors and priests use the phrase Black Legend to say that the crimes committed by Christianity are exaggerations and want to present Christianity as something good.

For me, the most dangerous thing about these Hispanists and even more so when they are from Europe is that the genocide of the indigenous people continues in the present, and many times they make the indigenous people invisible by believing that criollos and mestizos are the same as indigenous people, but also many Of them deny that crimes are committed against indigenous people in the present and support governments that cause massacres of indigenous people in the present such as Jair Bolsonaro, Javier Milei, Guillermo Lasso or Donald Trump, who all have the support of Vox.

Massacres of indigenous people of the Guaraní-Kaiowa ethnic group by the PM (Military Police) of Brazil and by other criminals who murdered an indigenous child of this ethnic group, during the government of Jair Bolsonaro.

Malnutrition and death of indigenous children of the Yanomami ethnic group due to mercury contamination, malaria and food shortages caused because Jair Bolsonaro's government encouraged and allowed illegal miners and other criminals to invade indigenous territories:

Donald Trump gave permission for an oil pipeline to invade indigenous territory in the United States, and then when the natives (indigenous people) demonstrated against the pipeline he sent the colonialist criminal police to oppress and attack them:

Massacres of indigenous people during the Jeanine Añez government in Bolivia:

Murders of indigenous people in the government of Dina Boluarte in Peru:

Massacres of indigenous people caused by the government of Guillermo Lasso in Ecuador:

Santiago Abascal from the VOX party of Spain with Agustín Laje, Santiago Abascal with Jair Bolsonaro, Santiago Abascal with Javier Milei and Santiago Abascal with Donald Trump:

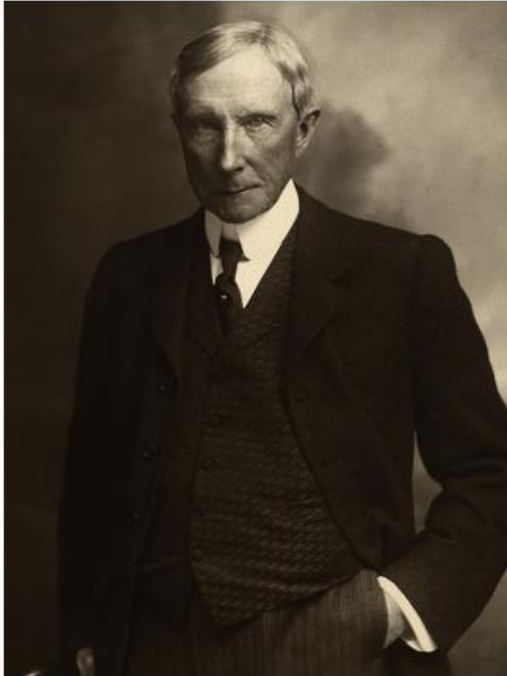

All of these criminals promote the extermination of indigenous people in the present and promote hatred of indigenous people in the present, and are part of a geopolitical agenda of the criminal elites. Therefore, all those who support and vote for these damn monsters are equally murderous and genocidal.

When conservatives who make up conspiracy theories deny climate change they are benefiting the oil industry and the livestock industry, and they may receive millions from these industries for denying climate change.

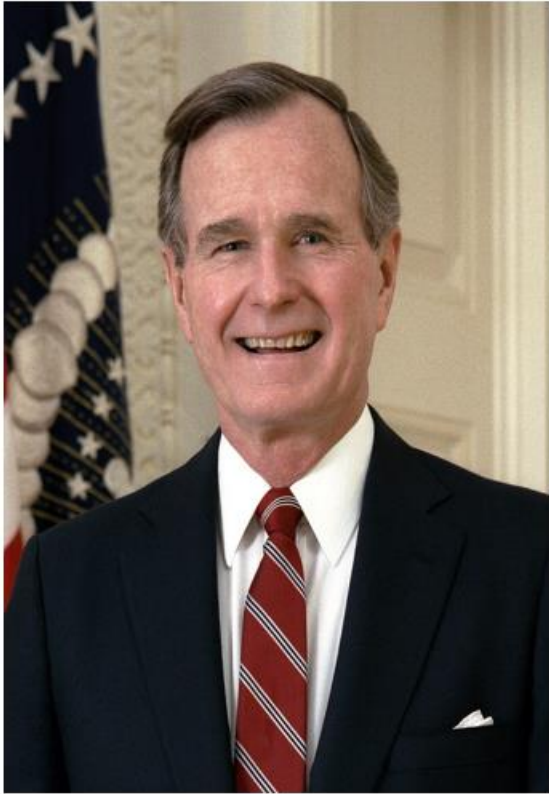

These conservatives who invent conspiracy theories always mention elites like the Rockefellers. But, what they never mention is that John Davison Rockefeller Sr was the founder of the first most powerful oil company in the United States called Standard Oil. And when they deny climate change they are benefiting oil companies like Standard Oil.

These conservatives who invent conspiracy theories never mention that George Bush Sr., a member of the Republican Party (the same one Donald Trump belongs to), was the first elite president to deny climate change.

But, what they do mention is that George Bush Jr. belonged to the Masonic lodge Skull & Bones, because these conservatives only mention what suits their conservative and Judeo-Christian ideologies.

By the way, relatives of the native (indigenous) named Geronimo denounced the Masonic lodge Skull & Bones for stealing Geronimo's remains.

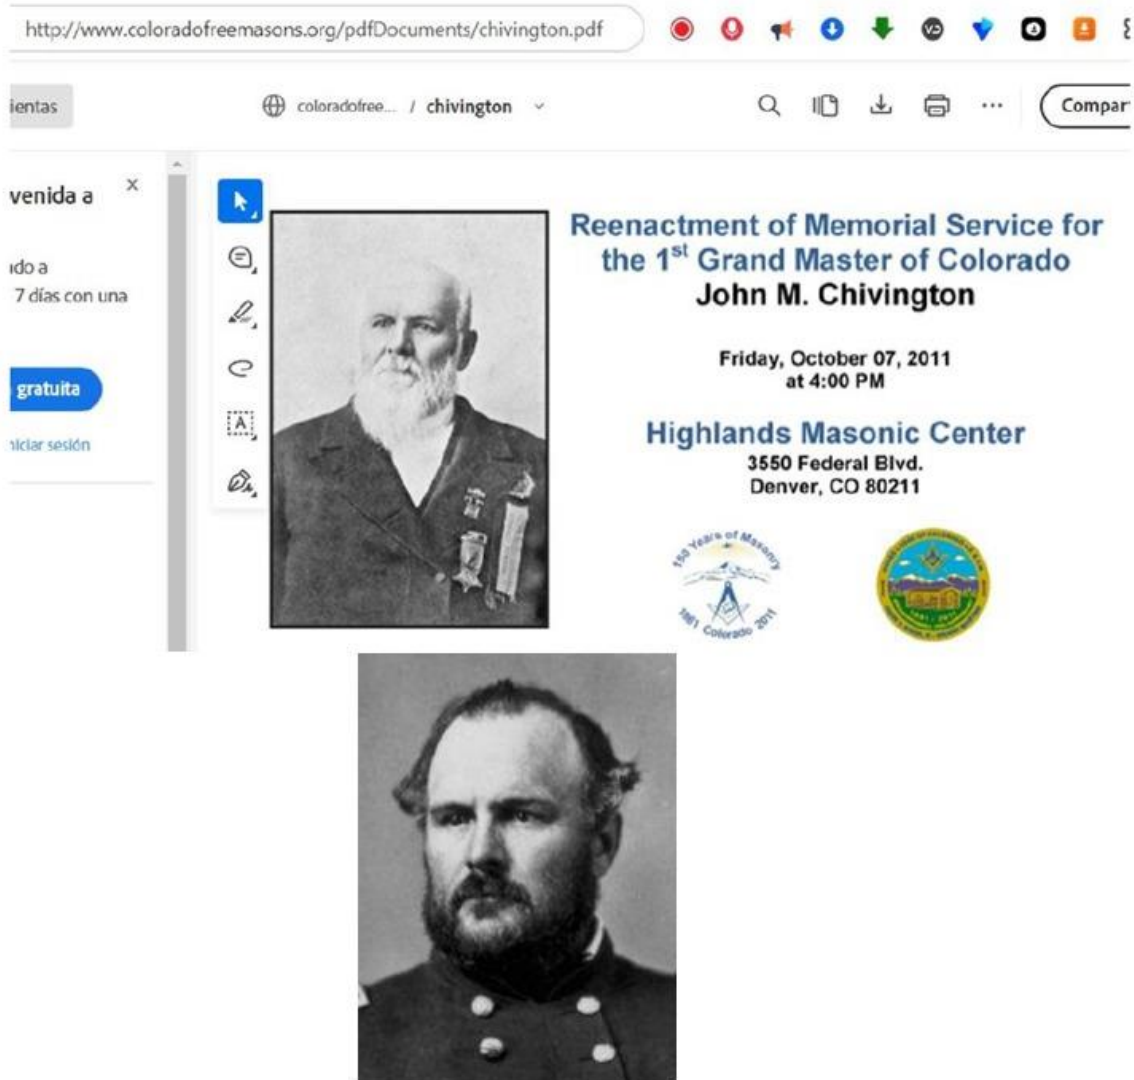

That Freemasonry promotes hatred of indigenous people is proven by the same phrases of Freemasons such as:

The Catholic, Argentine and member of Freemasonry named Domingo Faustino Sarmiento said: - We would like to remove the savages from all American social issues, for whom we feel, without being able to remedy it, an invincible repugnance, they are nothing more than disgusting Indians, whom we would had them hanged and we would have them hanged now, if they reappeared in a war. For the savages of America I feel an invincible disgust without being able to remedy it. Those scoundrels are nothing more than some disgusting Indians.

John Milton Chivington member of the Christian Methodist Church and member of Freemasonry said: -Cursed be the man who sympathizes with the Indians, I have come to kill Indians, and I believe it is just and honorable to use any means under God's heaven to kill Indians.

John Milton Chivington, who was part of the Christian Methodist church, led the Sand Creek Massacre in the United States. John Milton Chivington scalped Indigenous people, cut open the bellies of pregnant indigenous women and removed fetuses, and cut off the male and female genitals of indigenous people as trophies.

In the following publication of the Masonic Lodge of Argentina called Julio Argentino Roca, referring to Julio Argentino Roca they write as something to admire and celebrate: - He had an outstanding performance in the War of the Triple Alliance and was the architect of the strategy that would lead to the definitive victory in the fight against the Indian.

All these monsters that hate indigenous people have gestures, looks and physical features in common. That is why these monsters are enemies and predators of the indigenous people because of their genetics, it does not matter that this antics of political correctness denies genetic influence and it does not matter that that cheesy ideology of equality denies that genetics does influence.

And since genetics does play a role, these monsters should be prohibited from reproducing and should be sterilized, the majority of humanity should not reproduce, regardless of what human rights organizations that promote pacifism and that are part of the Masonic game.

5. All of us who are not indigenous are descended from European colonizers, even mestizos, no matter how many indigenous traits they have, are descended from European colonizers because miscegenation is a product of colonization.

But, the fact of descending from European settlers does not justify being complicit and guilty of everything that indigenous people suffer by voting for politicians who harm them, by being indifferent to their lives and by considering their lives as disposable as the majority does.

For example, if someone is the child of a serial killer or rapist, that doesn't mean they have to support serial killers or rapists. Hatred of indigenous people did not arise out of nowhere, most Creoles and most mestizos inherited that hatred and contempt for indigenous people from the European settlers.

When the ancestors of the indigenous people arrived from Siberia to this continent there were no other human inhabitants here.

On this continent to which the colonizers gave the name America: the colonists sought to eliminate indigenous genetics through extermination, miscegenation and replacement.

But, as in East Asia, the population was larger: they sought to eliminate the indigenous in another way, causing the majority of the population to renounce the indigenous way of being, of thinking and the vision of the world, that is, the majority of the population would cease to be indigenous.

Of course, if European settlers could have eliminated those genetics in East Asia, they would have done so, too.

For this reason, in China indigenous ethnic groups are only 9%, and in the Philippines they are only approximately 10% to 12%. And since the majority of the population in East Asia renounced being indigenous, that is why many despise indigenous things and use products to lighten their skin.

There are female models and male models in the Philippines who use skin lightening products:

And in animes they always present the characters as white and with more open eyes. And both Christian religions and atheism come from Europe.

Many mestizos with indigenous features want to be like Europeans and many Europeans despise them, many mestizos with indigenous features despise indigenous people and many Europeans consider them the same as indigenous because since many Europeans are ignorant, they believe that indigenous is only the physical features.

When many mestizos with indigenous features consider European features as beauty, they are hating themselves for considering themselves ugly, and that is what the majority of Europeans want and that is what the Christian religions, Satanism, atheism, the New Age and Freemasonry that in the future there will only be white people, but not indigenous people and not people with indigenous features.

6. That mestizaje was a plan to eliminate the indigenous people was something accepted by Mexico's own politicians:

Francisco Bulnes and others affirmed that, to incorporate the indigenous people into society, the indigenous people had to lose their language, lose their customs and continue with biological miscegenation, so that after a short time they would all become white.

José Vanconcelos said: - It is time to proclaim, without reservation, that both the Aztec and the civilizations that preceded it, formed an aborted case of humanity. The only way to save such decayed towns is the one that the Spanish used, miscegenation legalized by the Papal Bull that authorized marriages between Spaniards and natives. And with miscegenation, the total replacement of the old soul with a new soul, through the miracle of Christianity. The fact that we have so many millions of Indians in Mexico should not sadden us, as long as the traditional tendency persists.

José Vanconcelos was a Freemason and promoter of Nazi ideology.

Also, these Rightists and Neoliberals or Libertarians affirm that criticism of miscegenation is the same as Nazism, when criticism of miscegenation has not caused the extermination of mestizos and has not caused concentration camps for mestizos.

On the other hand, there has been extermination of indigenous people in all the countries of the continent and there have been concentration camps for indigenous people on the continent.

1. Extermination of indigenous people of the Selknam ethnic group in Chile and Argentina

2. Extermination of indigenous people in the Wounded Knee Massacre in the United States and by the United States government.

3. Massacre of indigenous people in 1932 that occurred in El Salvador by order of General Maximiliano Hernández Martínez.

4. Nile Massacre in Colombia in 1991 where 20 indigenous people were murdered.

5. In Brazil, there was a concentration camp called Granja Guaraní where indigenous people of the Krenak ethnic group were taken as prisoners during the military dictatorship.

6. Indigenous people of the Selk'nam ethnic group kept in a concentration camp.

7. The Lonkos, Tehuelches, Inakayal and Foyel and their families in a Patagonian concentration camp in Argentina.

8. Extermination of indigenous people in the Putumayo Genocide that happened in Peru.

9. Genocide of the indigenous people of the Ache ethnic group in Paraguay in the 1960s where the survivors were taken to a concentration camp where they died of hunger or disease.

The majority of mestizos are white mestizos or dark mestizos with indigenous features, just like the majority of Creoles and Europeans: they remain silent in the face of the injustices suffered by indigenous people, they are apathetic and indifferent to the lives of indigenous people, Therefore, miscegenation is a physical extermination of the indigenous people.

The majority of mestizos are white mestizos or dark-skinned mestizos with indigenous features, like the majority of Creoles and Europeans: consider the indigenous people as ugly and miscegenation as improving the race, therefore, miscegenation is a physical extermination of the indigenous people.

The majority of mestizos are white mestizos or dark-skinned mestizos with indigenous features, just like the majority of Creoles and Europeans: they lack the humble and simple way of being of the indigenous people, which is why mestizaje is an extermination of the way of being of the indigenous people.

The majority of mestizos are white mestizos or brown mestizos with indigenous features, just like the majority of Creoles and Europeans: they are consumerists, they see nature as a simple economic resource and they lack a vision of the world in harmony with the nature of the indigenous people, therefore, miscegenation is an extermination of the indigenous world view.

7. With the following that I am going to explain, I want to make a series of clarifications:

1. I am against attacking or discriminating against a person for being black or mulatto, however, when many blacks and many mulattoes harm indigenous people, they should be condemned in the same way as when white people harm to indigenous people.

2. Just as there is a minority of whites who care about indigenous people, there is also a minority of blacks and mulattoes who care about indigenous people, and what I denounce with my writings is that a majority of whites, blacks and mulattoes harm the indigenous people, I am not referring to the minority.

3. I agree with fighting against the racism suffered by blacks and mulattos, but they should do the same to fight against the racism suffered by indigenous people, and what I criticize is the hypocrisy of many who say they fight against the racism suffered by blacks, while they are indifferent to the racism suffered by indigenous people.

Both the United States and the CIA promote the extermination of indigenous people in the present, the USAID of the United States is related to governments that cause the extermination of indigenous people such as Guillermo Lasso, Jair Bolsonaro, Dina Boluarte and Jeanine Añez.

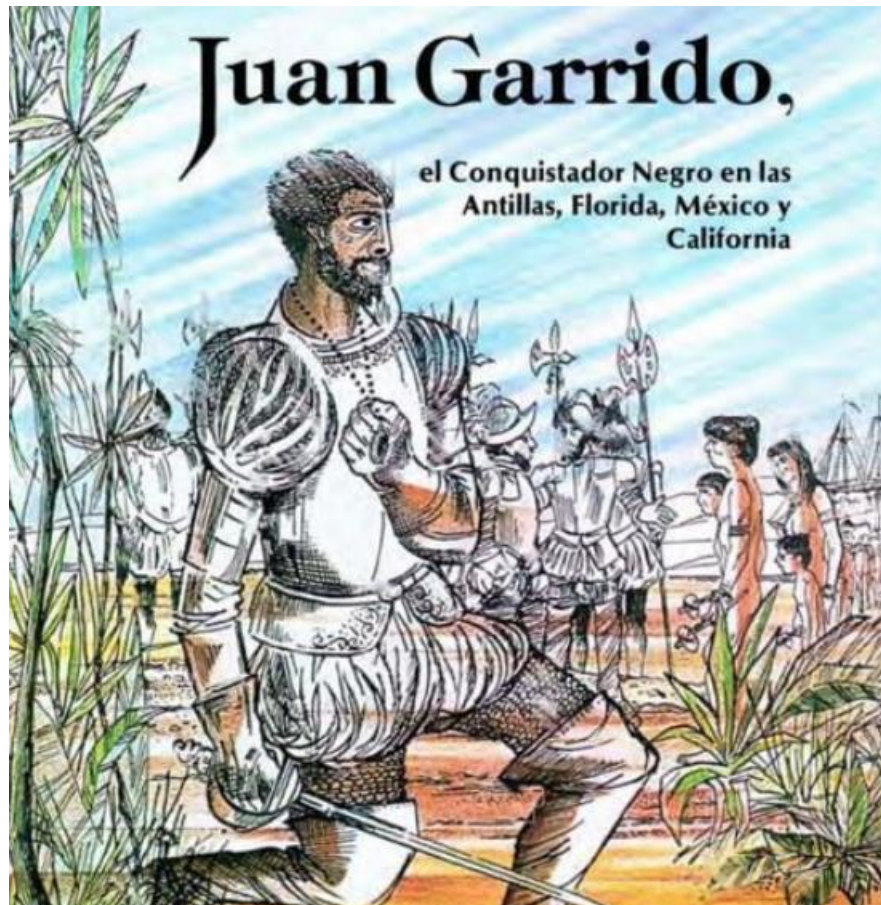

The extermination of indigenous people continues in the present with indifference and therefore the fault of the majority, whether Europeans, Creoles, mestizos, blacks and mulattoes who vote for politicians who harm the indigenous people, consider the indigenous people as disposable and are indifferent to what the indigenous people suffer.

White people have not been the only ones who have harmed indigenous people in the past and white people have not been the only ones who have harmed indigenous people in the present. There were black colonizers such as Juan Valiente, Juan García, Sebastián Toral and Juan Beltrán de Magaña.

Juan Garrido was another black colonizer who fought in war campaigns of the Spanish colonizers against the indigenous people.

Juan Garrido said: - I, Juan Garrido, of black color, resident of this city (Mexico), appear before Your Mercy and declare that I am in need of giving proof in perpetuity to the king, a report of how I served Your Majesty in the conquest and pacification of this New Spain, since the Marquis del Valle (Cortés) entered it and in his company I was present in all the invasions and conquests and pacifications that were made, always with said Marquis, all of which I did at my own expense without being given a salary or distribution of Indians or anything else.

There were black cowboys like Nat Love and Britton Johnson who, like white cowboys, murdered indigenous people and collaborated with the United States government in promoting hatred and domination of indigenous people.

There was the buffalo army in the United States made up of blacks who went to fight against the indigenous people (natives) and received medals of honor for that. Bob Marley's rasta singer pays tribute to them in a song.

Hippies are the white version and Rastas are the black version, both believe that we must have love and peace with those who harm the innocent, and reward those who harm the innocent with light, love and peace as the New Age teaches.

In the genocide of indigenous people in Putumayo that occurred in Peru there were two black landowners who committed the same atrocities against indigenous people, and in Brazil and Colombia there are many black people who also make hateful comments towards indigenous people and who harm indigenous people.

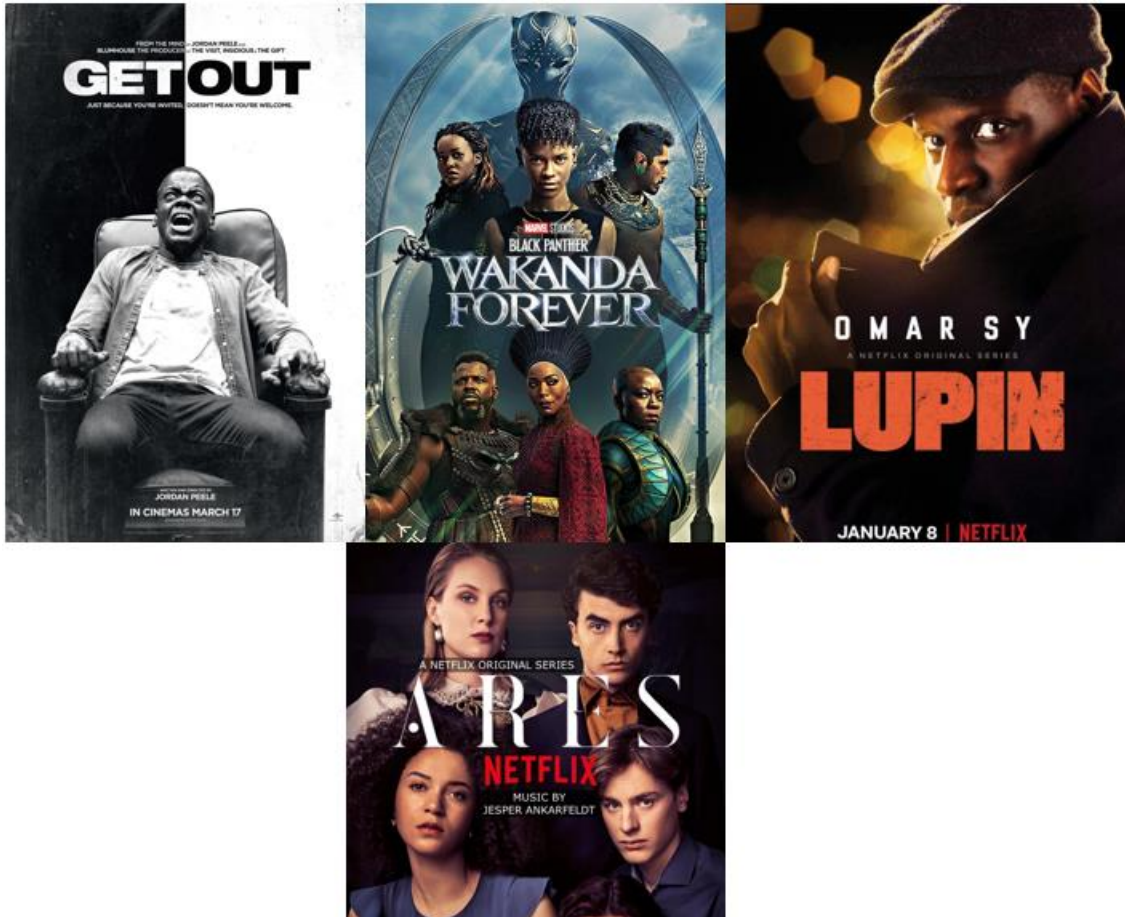

In the United States there is Black Lives Matter and many whites defend black people, but they are indifferent to the lives of indigenous people, singers and celebrities who support Black Lives Matter such as Madonna or Shawn Mendes are the same ones who dress up as cowboys to make them tribute to these cowboys who were enemies of the indigenous people and who murdered the indigenous people.

And the majority when they talk about racism only think about black people and never about indigenous people, the majority respect black people more than indigenous people.

Currently there are many films and series that present white people as enemies of black people and all black people always as victims.

But, there are many films and series that continue to celebrate the United States army and the cowboys who murdered indigenous people, and in the entertainment industry indigenous people continue to be represented as ignorant, savages, and their lives are presented as disposable.

Most of the time, the entertainment industry when it talks about inclusion includes all races, except indigenous people because that is the desire of governments and elites to one day make all indigenous people disappear.

8. It is true that the Spanish colonists used some indigenous ethnic groups through deception to defeat others, but contrary to what the Hispanists claim, this was not only done by the Spanish colonists:

Portuguese settlers in Brazil used some indigenous groups, such as the Tupinambás, against other rival groups, such as the Tupiniquins.

English settlers often used some indigenous ethnic groups, such as the Iroquois, against others, such as the Algonquian or Huron.

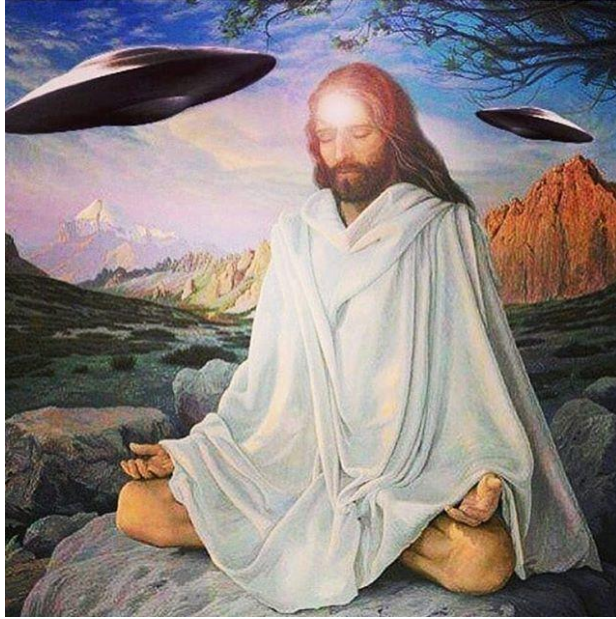

As for the French colonizers, they also employed similar tactics, especially in the region of what is now Canada and the Mississippi River Valley.

In many cases, European settlers indiscriminately attacked the various indigenous ethnic groups, regardless of whether or not they practiced human sacrifice. And in the invasions they attacked the indigenous civilian population that has no relationship with the human sacrifices practiced by the priests and politicians of those ethnic groups.

This was due to a combination of factors, including the quest for power, wealth and territory, as well as deep-seated racial and cultural prejudices.

Indigenous populations were also decimated by diseases introduced by European settlers for which they had no immunity, such as smallpox and measles.

9. The New Age like the Freemasons do have Judeo-Christian beliefs such as Jesus Christ, angels, demons, only they affirm that they are extraterrestrials, beings of light or ascended masters. New Age is a form of modern Christianity where Judeo-Christian beliefs in angels, demons or Jesus Christ are interpreted in a modern way as beings from other planets.

Just as religious fanatics of Christian religions affirm that those who do not believe the same are sinners and bad people, the New Agers affirm that those who do not believe the same are sleepy and low-vibration beings.

The New Age is white supremacy, therefore, its aliens, angels and its ascended masters are represented as white, blue-eyed and blonde, the New Age is colonialism because they claim that one of the incarnations of Saint Germain was Christopher Columbus.

The New Age teaches to lack empathy and to be indifferent to the pain of others, affirming that victims are paying karma from past lives, that they attract what happens to them with their minds or that they are agreements before incarnating. The New Age is an invention of Freemasons. The New Age is part of the system.

When the Aryans (inhabitants of Iran) of the Persian Empire invade India, colonize and subjugate the Dravidians (the indigenous population of India), these Aryans invent Hinduism, the caste system and the concept of karma, stating that the Dravidians They suffered hatred, domination and extermination for all the harm they did in past lives, and that the Aryans were in power for the good they did in past lives.

After this Hinduism Buddhism emerged.

It is similar to how the Protestant or evangelical religion, Adventists, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses and other Christian religions emerged from the Catholic religion.

We must remember that the Persians invented the first monotheistic religion called Zoroastrianism, from which Judaism later emerged, and then Christianity and Islam emerged from Judaism, and the Aryans of the Persian Empire, when they invaded and colonized India, invented that Hinduism and then Buddhism arises from that Hinduism.

That is why, for example, the CIA as part of the United States government promotes hatred of indigenous people and their extermination, but the CIA itself promotes New Age beliefs, in one of its declassified documents it mentions gods of the India, and both the CIA and George Bush gave political asylum and protection to the Dalai Lama.

The New Age promotes toxic positivism, says that only happiness is good and makes people believe that sadness and anger are bad, and that it means lowering the vibration, feeding lower astral entities, vibrating low, being asleep and other nonsense.

In addition, it promotes a lack of empathy with those who suffer injustice by stating that they are paying karma from past lives, that they are agreements before incarnating and that they attracted it with their mind. It is part of Social Darwinism just like the Christian religions, Satanism, white paganism and Freemasonry.

The New Age, also, makes people care more about knowing if life exists on other planets and living in a world of fantasy than about caring for life on this planet.

The New Age promotes toxic positivism and repressing emotions considered negative, which causes psychological damage because people should be free to express their emotions, all emotions have a function and are important.

The New Age by making people live in a fantasy world where everything is love and peace, makes people refuse to see the injustices and atrocities that happen in this world, and therefore, those injustices and atrocities continue to happen because they ignore them with that toxic positivism.

Pacifism means that those who harm the innocent and those who harm the most vulnerable go unpunished and never pay for their crimes. Pacifism tells victims not to defend themselves and to allow harm to continue.

For this reason, when the colonizers subjugated and dominated the indigenous people, they called it pacification. Or like the pax of the Romans, which consisted of the people colonized by the Romans accepting domination and submission.

It is absurd that they brainwash indigenous people with pacifism, when before colonization, most indigenous ethnic groups had their share of warriors, but these people assume that pacifism is something typical of the majority of indigenous ethnic groups.

The matriarchal indigenous ethnic groups (led by women) as well as the patriarchal indigenous ethnic groups (led by men): both had warriors.

There were very few indigenous ethnic groups on the continent that did not have warriors, and those few ethnic groups were the most vulnerable to being exterminated because they did not have a structure of warriors to defend them.

It must always be clarified that the majority of indigenous ethnic groups had warriors, but that does not mean that all indigenous people were warriors, one thing was the civilian population, another thing were the shamans, another thing were the kings and queens or leaders, and another thing were the warriors.

This must always be clarified, because the majority thinks that within each indigenous ethnic group everyone was dedicated to the same thing and this is not true.

These defenders of colonization make it believe that all indigenous people were dedicated to the same thing, without mentioning the different hierarchical structures and different clans that had different functions and were dedicated to different things.

And when the European settlers attacked, they attacked everyone regardless of whether they were civilians, shamans, kings or leaders and warriors. They attacked all indigenous people who did not submit equally, regardless of which structure and regardless of clan which ethnic.

These New Age people often say that hierarchical structures are always something bad in and of themselves, but when it suits them they support hierarchical structures, such as when they support Donald Trump and Jair Bolsonaro, and they affirm that Donald Trump and Jair Bolsonaro are beings of light.

The bad thing is the hierarchical structures in the colonialist, capitalist society that places money above life and is sick in which we live where the indigenous people do not govern on the continent.

But, hierarchical structures are part of nature and are present in animals of other species such as bees and ants.

The hierarchical structures and clans within the indigenous ethnic groups were not a bad thing and no one went hungry in these structures and clans, and for an indigenous culture to exist, these hierarchical structures and clans are necessary.

When I criticized Nayib Bukele in one of my books, I did not do it because of his treatment of the gangs, Nayib Bukele's treatment of the gangs seems fine to me. I criticized Nayib Bukele for other issues that are not related to gangs.

Many New Age sects such as Gnosis Hyperborea and New Acropolis are even neo-Nazis. And many New Agers manipulate the indigenous people into considering pacifism as a good thing, not defending themselves and thus defending their oppressors.

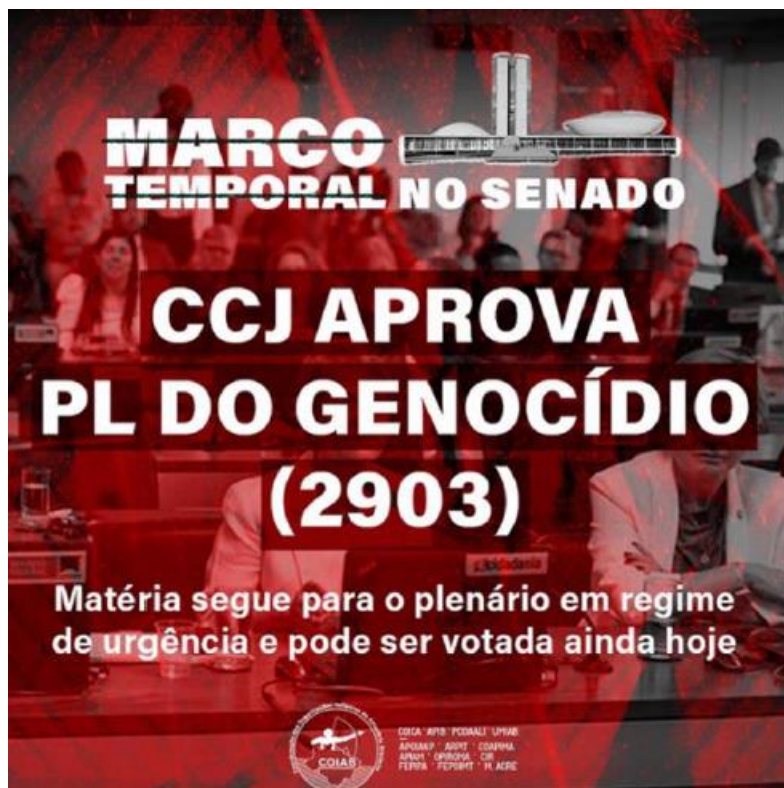

10. The political right and neoliberals can never hide their visceral hatred of indigenous people:

In countries like Argentina, the majority voted for Milei who paid tribute to Julio Argentino de Roca who promoted the extermination of indigenous people in the misnamed Conquista Del Desierto, and now even a lake in indigenous territory was renamed Lake Roca without consulting to indigenous populations.

For example, in Brazil the majority voted for senators and deputies who approved the temporary framework that affects indigenous people.

In Colombia, the police and military expel the Emberá indigenous people from their territories, but if the Emberá indigenous people defend themselves or take revenge, they are treated as criminals, terrorists or savages because they believe that the indigenous people have to be pacifists who allow themselves to be harmed and turn the other cheek.

And Hollywood has always celebrated those who murdered indigenous people with films about cowboys, colonizers and the United States army. Governments and television also treat indigenous people as criminals, savages and terrorists when they defend themselves or take revenge, and many governments harm indigenous people to benefit non-indigenous people.

Therefore, my view regarding the majority of humanity that is not indigenous: is that they are 100% evil.

Two examples of how the contact of indigenous people with the non-indigenous majority, most of the time, is something harmful are the following:

The place of black people is Africa, just as the place of white people is Europe.

Blacks were brought to this continent by European settlers, a part of the blacks were brought as slaves and the other part of the blacks were brought as settlers who helped white settlers to exterminate and reduce the majority of the indigenous population, and to dominate and subjugate the decimated indigenous population (what they called pacification).

Before colonization, the indigenous people of the Emberá ethnic group did not practice clitoral ablation. But, after colonization, when the Emberá had contact with black people, upon seeing that clitoral ablation was a common practice among black people, some Emberá began to imitate this practice that negatively affects the lives of women and girls.

It was common that before colonization, several ethnic groups had rituals with a certain masochistic connotation such as the Sun dance, or the ritual practiced by indigenous ethnic groups from Xingu called the Arranhadeira ritual where they shave their entire body with the teeth of a fish until they bleed a little, also, rituals of indigenous ethnic groups where piercings are done to use earrings and rings.

But these rituals, with a certain masochistic connotation, were not intended to make the indigenous people hate themselves, they were not intended to make the indigenous people forgive everything, they were not intended to make the indigenous people love their enemies and they were not intended to make the indigenous people turn the other cheek.

These rituals, with a certain masochistic connotation, aim for indigenous people to develop a certain courage and resistance in the face of pain that is part of nature and in the face of extreme situations, to develop strength, to develop vitality and are a form of purification.

Before colonization, it was not common for indigenous people to “educate” their children through beatings.

But, when the whites arrived and then their descendants (creoles and mestizos) emerged: the children of many indigenous people were separated from their families, these indigenous children and indigenous adolescents were taken to Christian schools and Christian colleges where they were permanently institutionalized.

In these schools and colleges, indigenous children were taught to have the Western way of thinking, to have the Judeo-Christian beliefs, to speak the language of the settlers, to have the Western way of being, and to have the Western world view.

But, also in these schools and colleges, indigenous children and indigenous adolescents were beaten daily as punishment and many times for the simple fact of being indigenous, it was a way of teaching them to hate themselves and to develop submission to the hatred of his enemies.

When these indigenous children and indigenous adolescents grew up and returned to their villages, they often did the same thing to their children, hitting them for everything and taking out their frustration on their children.

Western science has also done a lot of damage, it promotes atheism that teaches humans to reify nature and see it as a simple economic resource. There are many atheists like the Dalas Review who justify and support the political Right and the Neoliberals who promote hatred of indigenous people and the extermination of indigenous people, that is, Social Darwinism.

Also, atheists like Dalas Review have a concept of civilization and progress that consists of polluted and treeless cities, construction with metals, and the farming of bulls and cows brought by European settlers that generates much deforestation and excessive emissions of polluting gases (dioxide carbon, methane, nitrous oxide, nitrogen and others).

And atheists like the president of China, too, promote polluted cities and the use of metals to build, and they call all of this development according to the Western concept that these East Asians acquired when they stopped being indigenous.

However, I do not promote a total rejection of Western science, because doing so would be New Age.

I am simply talking about rescuing the positive parts of Western science, just as I have written about rescuing the positive of the different indigenous ethnic groups and the ancient Egyptians, discarding the negative part.

As I have said many times, the left is something negative for indigenous ethnic groups either when it promotes Christianity such as Liberation Theology or when it promotes atheism as in the case of the Former Soviet Union and China, however, the Political right and Neoliberals are worse for indigenous people because they openly promote hate speech and extermination.

I am not politically correct, I do not believe in equality or peace, I do believe that human races exist and that genetics do influence behavior, but the left promotes what is politically correct, that is why they teach indigenous people to be pacifists, to believe in equality and that is to submit to their enemies.

In nature and in the universe there is always chaos and destruction, in any human race there will always be traitors, tyrants and cruel people because that is part of nature.

However, non-indigenous races have always proven to be the most destructive and harmful to the planet. And in the races that are not indigenous, there are few who are exceptions.

And what I'm going for is that pacifism, believing in the utopia that you can live in a 100% peaceful world, of brotherhood and love, as hippies and rastas believe, makes the most innocent and vulnerable humans more exposed to harm.

For this reason, there must always be warriors who defend the weakest and who defend the most vulnerable, and who are always alert because as long as life exists there will always be threats, because it is part of nature and the universe.

The more complicated or complex a race is in its way of being and thinking, the more consumerist and more destructive it is, and that is what happens with the majority that is not indigenous.

For this reason, I do not support intellectualism, that is, I think it is good to rescue the positive aspects of Western science, but without complicated words and without technicalities.

All races of dogs, wolves and coyotes arose from a common ancestor, but that does not mean they are the same races.

All races of cats and felines such as lions, jaguars, tigers, leopards, pumas and others emerged from a common ancestor, but that does not mean that they are the same race.

If you analyze the genetics of a cat and the genetics of a lion, the genetic differences are very few, but that does not mean that they are the same race.

And the different human races emerged from a common ancestor in Africa, but that does not mean they are the same races.

Both a human and a chimpanzee share 99% of their DNA in common, and that does not mean they are the same race.

Therefore, when they deny that human races exist based on the fact that the genetic differences are very few, this is absurd, because then they would have to say that a human and a chimpanzee are the same race because the genetic differences are only 1%.

When we talk about sun gods as creator gods of life, that makes sense because the sun makes life possible. Just like moon goddesses, the moon also makes life possible.

And goddesses and gods of nature, it makes sense because it is thanks to nature as a whole that life exists. Just like the gods and goddesses of the universe, the entire universe as a whole makes it possible for life to exist, and this does not contradict evolution and does not contradict the Big Bang.

Therefore, the atheistic and skeptical belief that believing in something more than just matter contradicts evolution and the Big Bang is absurd, and is based on that Judeo-Christian and Western way of thinking that separates spirituality from science.

What atheism and skepticism seeks for everything to be 100% objective is an imbalance. Just as man and woman are needed, day and night, heat and cold, summer and winter: likewise, a balance is needed between the objective and logical part with the subjective, emotional and imaginary part or creative.

Also, both Judeo-Christian religions and atheism and skepticism try to impose the Western European worldview, impose the Western European way of thinking and impose the Western European way of being, both are part of the globalist, colonial and geopolitical project just like the New Age that mixes everything and makes a salad of beliefs saying that everything is the same.

Both the Right and the Neoliberals as well as the Left talk about democracy and democracy means the will of the majority. The majority are selfish, individualistic and only care about their own personal benefit, which is why they place money above life and everything.

For this reason, democracy is something harmful for indigenous people, because the majority will never think about the well-being of indigenous people when they vote, the majority will always think about what benefits them economically and helps them maintain their privileges.

It's like when Andrew Jackson talked about freedom or when Javier Milei talks about freedom: freedom for these monsters means maintaining hatred, domination and oppression against indigenous people to benefit those who are not indigenous.

Also, freedom for these monsters: it means freedom to hate, to torture, to abuse, to rape and to murder the most innocent or the most vulnerable.

In other words, freedom for these monsters is Social Darwinism, the stupid belief that harming the most vulnerable such as the indigenous people is power, virility, strength, masculinity and manhood, because they consider the indigenous people as simple prey, objects or things.

The following comment is from an Argentine named Jorge Pujato where he writes the following: -As some forum member says, the note tries to romanticize a story that is not such. From what I know, the Mapuches crossed the mountain range and massacred native peoples of present-day Argentina and took over their lands.

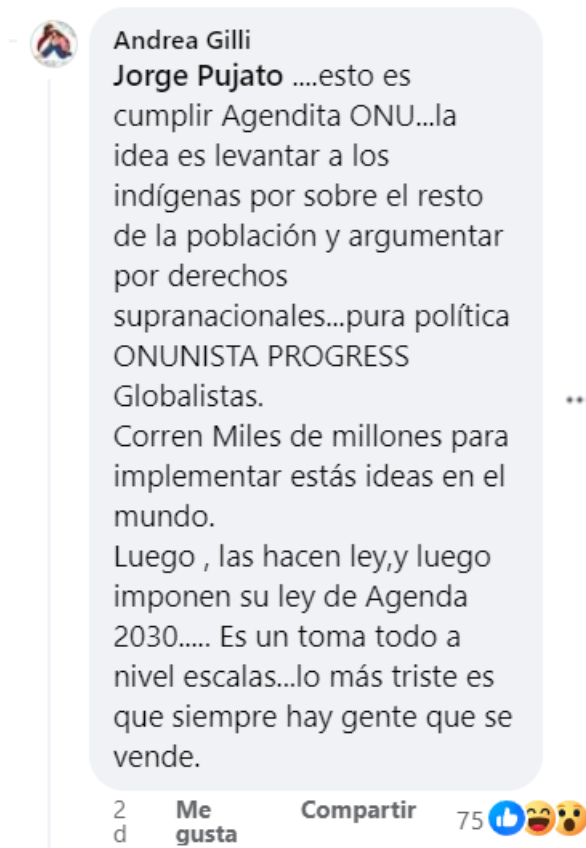

The politicians of Argentina who hate the indigenous people and who promote the extermination of indigenous people in Argentina, and who are in power with the vote of the majority of Argentines: they invented the lie that the Mapuches exterminated other indigenous ethnic groups such as the Tehuelches and took over their lands when the concept of countries did not exist on the continent before the arrival of European settlers.

Both in Argentina and Chile: the Mapuche suffer oppression by the criminal and colonial state like the state of all countries on the continent, and are treated as criminals, terrorists and savages when they defend their rights.

In reality, criminals like Julio Argentino Roca, who are as admired by genocidaires as Javier Milei, were the ones who exterminated the majority of the indigenous people who belonged to indigenous ethnic groups such as the Tehuelches and others in the so-called conquest of the desert.

Now let's read the comment of a criminal woman for being a believer in conspiracy theories invented by conservatives and a Christian from Chile named Andrea Gilli: - this is fulfilling the ONU agenda. The idea is to lift indigenous people above the rest of the population and argue for supranational rights. Pure progressive globalist communist politics. Billions are running to implement these ideas in the world. Then, they make them law, and then they impose their Agenda 2030 law.

Conspiracy theories invented by conservatives, in addition to being a promotion of Christian religions, the New Age, the political right and neoliberals, are also a way of promoting the lie that the majority of Humanity that is totally evil are innocent and harmless victims of elites and governments.

The only victims of governments and elites are the indigenous people as demonstrated in this publication, not the majority.

And these damn believers in conspiracy theories invented by conservatives like them: they say that the 2030 agenda defends the indigenous people because they want the indigenous people to be above the majority.

When it is the damn majority that has always placed itself above the indigenous people and has never cared about what the indigenous people suffer.

Yo soy Andrea, la que camina entre milagros, por la fidelidad y amor de Dios.

In all countries on the continent, indigenous ethnic groups suffer oppression, hatred, contempt, invasion of territories and expulsion from their territories to benefit a majority that is not indigenous, and they suffer from being treated as terrorists and criminals when they defend themselves or take revenge.

But, in countries like Brazil, Argentina, Mexico and Chile, although throughout the continent the majority of humanity is bad and despicable, in those four countries the majority is worse and more despicable because the hatred and oppression towards the indigenous people is manifests itself more intensely and more openly in these four countries.

And although the majority of indigenous people have their minds colonized by Christian beliefs, and this is the fault of the majority who are not indigenous and not of the indigenous people, as I demonstrate in my free books, Christian religions continue to be the cause of everything that indigenous people suffer in the present.

Also, those who hate indigenous people visit their territories. For example, many politicians from Bolsonaro's party like Marcelo Xavier visited the indigenous territory of Xingu, and remember when Donald Trump met with natives (indigenous) and placed a painting of Andrew Jackson behind it.

To the question: Why do they do this?

The answer is that the oppression of the indigenous people gives them sadistic pleasure and it also gives them pleasure to have their prey nearby. Also, it is a way of showing domination to the indigenous people, of telling them that they hate them, but that their destiny is in their hands.

The message that these political predators of indigenous people give to indigenous people is the same one that the European settlers gave them, that if they want to live they have to submit to domination and hatred to benefit those who are not indigenous by extracting resources from those territories which is what they call economic and technological development.

It is a way for these monsters to tell the indigenous people that if they want to live they must be slaves and satisfy the sadism of their oppressors.

Regarding why many indigenous people accept these monsters to visit them and agree to meet with these monsters, I think they do it out of fear because they know that these monsters have the police and the military on their side.

But, many indigenous people did not allow themselves to be intimidated, and both indigenous people from the Xingu ethnic groups and indigenous people from other ethnic groups in Brazil demonstrated against these monsters with phrases like: out with Bolsonaro, out with fear, no to PL 2633 and burning the photo of Marcelo Xavier.

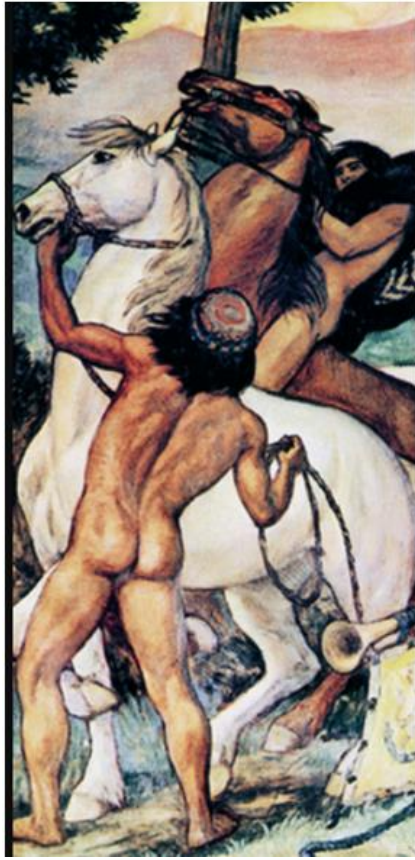

And when Donald Trump gave permission to the Dakota Access Pipeline to invade and extract oil in indigenous territory and thus contaminate their drinking water sources: some indigenous people knowing that they would be oppressed by the police at the service of the colonial state and hatred of indigenous people, They did not allow themselves to be intimidated and spoke out against it.

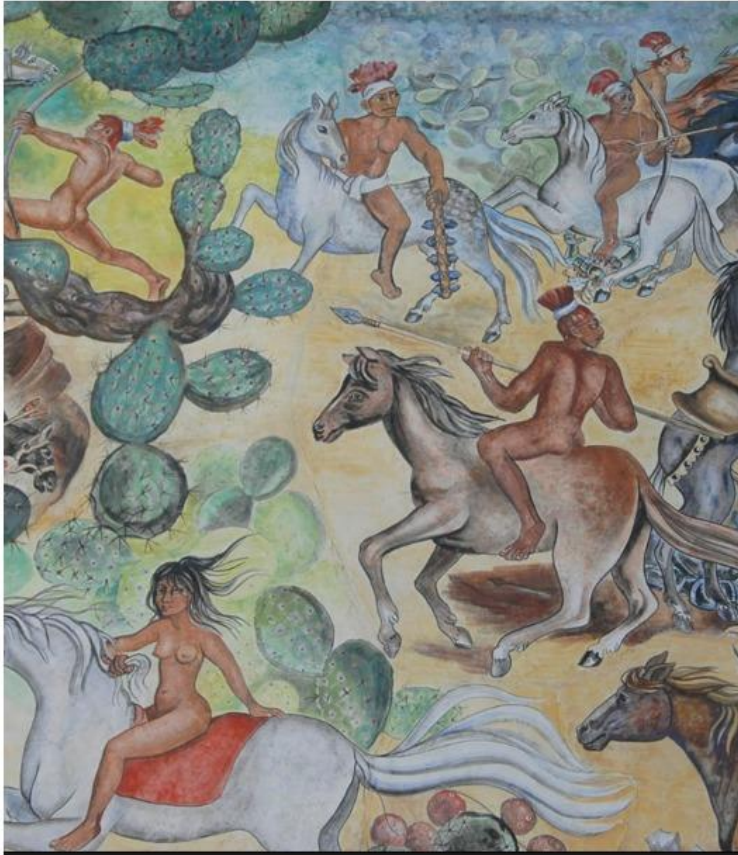

The Mapuches were not intimidated during colonization, and although the European settlers had iron armor, shields and iron weapons, many Mapuches preferred to fight completely naked and with only arrows against the Spanish colonizers.

And of course the colonists took sadistic pleasure in hurting them, that's why in the book titled History of Chile by the field master Don Pedro de Córdova y Figueroa it is written: - The horsemen led the assault, trampling the Mapuches who They slept naked, then the infantry came. The naked Indians took their weapons, but after a brief resistance they dispersed.

The Guachichiles in Mexico were another indigenous ethnic group that did not allow themselves to be intimidated, and knowing that the European settlers had iron armor, iron shields and weapons, the Guachichiles fought completely naked and using only arrows.

The Catholic priest called Brother Juan de Torquemada who participated in the colonization wrote: - They fight naked, smeared with matrices of different colors, and with bows and arrows tipped with flints.

Before suffering the extermination caused by the Jew and Freemason named Julio Popper with the support of the State of Argentina, the State of Chile and the Catholic Church: the Selknam, knowing that their enemies had rifles, fought totally naked and using only arrows.

For this reason, the enemies of the indigenous people are cowards, they never fought against the indigenous people under the same conditions, but the enemies of the indigenous people believe that hatred, domination, oppression, abuse, humiliation and extermination of indigenous people, according to them, represent virility, masculinity, power, bravery and strength.

Also, these monsters believe that defeating both the indigenous people of the past and defeating indigenous people of the present represents the triumph of Judeo-Christian morality against indigenous immorality, the triumph of civilization against savagery, the triumph of self-control against animal instincts and the triumph of strength against weakness.

For this reason, they consider the indigenous people as simple things, objects or prey, and the indifference of the majority is the main ally of these monsters.

For this reason, the colonizers of the past and the colonizers in the present, believed in the past and believe in the present according to their Judeo-Christian moralisms and their Western concepts: that they cleanse beings that are wild, sexually immoral and backward by nature, and that they fulfill a crusade or divine mission to replace them with humans with totally European genetics (European immigrants and Creoles) and with humans with a part of their European genetics (mestizos and mulattoes).

Those who hate indigenous people claim that miscegenation triumphed because indigenous women aesthetically preferred white men, or because indigenous women believed that white people were real men when they saw that white men defeated, dominated, subjugated, tortured and murdered indigenous men.

The reality is that both indigenous women of the past and indigenous women of the present prefer mestizaje because both in the past and in the present, mestizos are treated better than indigenous people, so they prefer mestizaje so that their children have better opportunities and better treatment.

They do not judge the human sacrifices practiced by white ethnic groups such as the Celts or the Vikings and say that we should not judge those white cultures with the vision of the present. The same thing they say is that we should not judge the crimes committed by Christianity such as the inquisition and its instruments of torture with the vision of the present.

But, in the case of the indigenous people of the present, since they have an instinctive hatred for them, they say that they do deserve oppression, hatred and extermination because they have the genetics of indigenous people of the past who practiced human sacrifices, cannibalism, wars among themselves and infanticide, and because they are children of the snake (reference to Genesis where the snake is a symbol of the devil and to Apocalypse where the dragon is a symbol of the devil) by having gods like Amaru, Kukulkan and Quetzalcóatl with those forms.

As for those who speak of the Black Legend to deny the crimes committed by the Spanish inquisition, and say that the Catholic inquisition was not the same as the Protestant inquisition: in reality they were the same, only that the Catholic inquisition focused more on heretics and the Protestant inquisition focused more on witches, but both were dedicated to defamation, torture and murder.

And when they say that the victims of the inquisition were not that many and that the numbers were exaggerated, it is simply something irrelevant, they seek to create a meaningless and sterile discussion, because what is really important is not the number of victims, the important thing is that there were victims.

In all countries on this continent: the political and judicial system is based on colonialism and hatred of indigenous people, which is why the majority of crimes committed against indigenous people go unpunished.

In Panama, justice freed the murderer of a 15-year-old indigenous woman. The murderer murdered her for refusing to have an abortion since her family would never accept a grandchild from an Indian woman in the words of the murderer's damned family.

In fact, many indigenous women do not realize the danger they face when accepting miscegenation.

On the other hand: how stupid the majority is with this Indian thing, the people of India have nothing to do with the indigenous, because the people of India have genes from the Persians (Arabs in the present), just like the whites have genes Persian (Arab), that's why many Arabs and Europeans look alike, and people from India only change their skin color to pink and they look the same as white people.

It must always be made clear that the genes of white people come from the Middle East and Western Asia, that is why white people are the ones who are genetically related to Indians (inhabitants of India), due to the origin of white ethnic groups (Celts, Vikings, Greeks and Romans) is Indo-European or Eurasian.

While the indigenous people are genetically related to the inhabitants of East Asia (China, Mongolia, Siberia and the Philippines).

When many Mexicans use the word prieto to insult blacks, indigenous people, mulattoes and other brown mestizos, they are ignorant. Prieto means black. The skin of the indigenous people is not white and it is not black.

The skin of the indigenous people is brown with beautiful reddish tones. And indigenous people suffer more racism, more rejection and more hatred than black people. The culture of the majority of Mexicans has no relationship with the indigenous people, but with the Europeans.

The fanaticism of the Catholic Church, cockfighting, bullfighting, those who believe that not crying and that harming the weakest is being a man or strong, the contempt for indigenous people and say that miscegenation is to improve the race, their preference with whites, who believe that civilization and development means destroying and polluting the environment, the garbage from soap operas and horrible Mexican television programs are of European origin, not of indigenous origin.

Mestizos never meant the same as indigenous, and most mestizos are enemies of the indigenous. The majority of mestizos are in their way of being, way of thinking and vision of the world the same as Europeans.

Mestizos are taught to hate and despise indigenous people. For this reason, the majority of mestizos laugh at the indigenous people, they see them with contempt or hatred. And this is done even by many hypocrites who say that they are proud of their indigenous roots, but when they have an indigenous person next to them it makes them uncomfortable.

When many talk about indigenous roots, I imagine that it is like a subliminal message, something like that the indigenous people are underground like the roots or buried like the roots.

When many talk about indigenous people as ancestors, I also hear it as a subliminal message like what all those who hate indigenous people say that they are something from the past, from the stone age, from the neolithic, primitive or backward.

It bothers me a lot when people like the majority tell me that they had an indigenous grandfather or indigenous great-grandfather, it seems stupid to me because they have the way of being, the way of thinking, tastes and vision of the world of Europeans, not of indigenous people.

The fact that they had an indigenous grandfather or great-grandfather does not change anything in the situation of the indigenous people, it is irrelevant, and it does not improve the situation of the indigenous people in any way, because they even collaborate in maintaining this system of hatred and oppression of the indigenous people, they are those who vote for politicians who harm the indigenous people and when they vote they never think about the indigenous people, they only think about what benefits them individually.

These mestizos are those who support the entertainment industry (television, soap operas, movies, series and cartoons) that promote hatred of indigenous people.

These mestizos like bull and cow farming, when in addition to being something that causes a lot of deforestation, and many emissions of methane, carbon dioxide, nitrous oxide and nitrogen, it was also something brought by European settlers.

It is true that the indigenous people before colonization were not vegetarians and they were not vegans, but they did not consume red meat from animals brought by the Europeans, they did not consume milk, they did not consume dairy products, they did not artificially inseminate animals and they did not keep animals in confinements.

And before colonization: the indigenous people are proof that to have calcium you do not need to consume milk and you do not need to consume dairy products.

To the present: governments, big businessmen and elites in power want to replace all indigenous people with Creoles, European immigrants, blacks, mulattoes and mestizos.

Sometimes genocide also occurs in covert ways: when governments allow indigenous people to suffer extreme poverty where they suffer hunger and lack of money for medical care, which causes their life expectancy to be lower compared to the rest.

And when governments allow non-indigenous people to invade indigenous territories without taking radical measures to prevent it, and with the help of television and other media, they treat indigenous people as terrorists, criminals and savages for defending themselves or seeking revenge.

Also, when governments like Jair Bolsonaro talk about integrating indigenous people into society, it means that they stop being indigenous and through miscegenation disappear.

And this is what happens in Costa Rica and Nicaragua where the genocide is carried out in covert ways. While the damn people in power in Brazil, who are in power because the majority voted for them, want to do the same thing that the United States did.

Do you know why the United States caused an extermination of Filipinos, used Agent Orange in the Vietnam War and dropped the bomb on Hiroshima, and why Spain wanted to colonize China as it did with this continent?

Because hatred of indigenous people does have genetic reasons and East Asians have the same genetics as the indigenous people of this continent.

That is why, when the majority of Chinese, Filipinos and other places in East Asia stopped being indigenous, they lightened their skin, and they made their own the concepts of Western development and civilization based on polluting and destroying the environment in exchange for money and technology, and the farming of bulls and cows carried out by the European settlers, they are ignorant, because if it had been possible the European settlers would have exterminated all of them just like they wanted to do with the indigenous people on this continent, since they also hate them because of genetics.

In Cuba, the Dominican Republic and Haiti: the Spanish colonists exterminated all the pure indigenous people and only left the mestizos alive, and then brought black slaves to replace the indigenous people.

For all European settlers (Spanish, Portuguese, English, French and other European nationalities) according to their Judeo-Christian ideologies: the indigenous people were disgusting beings, sexually immoral and savage, and they considered the crusade against the indigenous people as something sacred.

And this is what criminals like Jair Bolsonaro, Guillermo Lasso and Donald Trump want to wipe out all indigenous people in the present, and they would do the same thing if they could with East Asia to eliminate East Asians who have the same genetics, although these East Asians who ceased to be indigenous oppress East Asians who continue to be indigenous.

When I wrote that Indians (inhabitants of India) have the same genes as whites, I was referring to the majority of Indians who are not indigenous, because obviously in India there are also indigenous ethnic groups, but they are a minority.

For the European settlers, only mestizos had rights and souls because they had part of the European genes.

The colonists because of their Judeo-Christian ideologies, seeing that nudity was normal for the indigenous people, that they used body paint all over their bodies, that they practiced polygamy, that they practiced certain rituals with a sexual connotation and that some ethnic groups accepted homosexuality, for the colonists They were immoral beings who deserve extermination, but at the same time harming them gave them sadistic pleasure.

And it is the same thing that those in power feel when they harm the indigenous people, cause them fear as Jair Bolsonaro's government did and oppress them.

Someone may question: why, if the Spanish colonists hated the indigenous people so much, didn't they kill them all?

And the answer is that they did not kill them all because they needed slaves to work in crops in the case of the encomiendas and slaves to work in mines in the case of the mitas.

Additionally, by keeping indigenous people alive as slaves, the Spanish and Portuguese colonists did so for a short period of time, while they brought black slaves to replace the indigenous people.

And some people will say that because if they sought to exterminate the indigenous people, there are indigenous people in the present, and that is because some are descendants of the indigenous people who submitted to domination, humiliation and hatred to survive, and others are descendants of indigenous people who fled and hid in places that were difficult for settlers to access.

Also, they kept traitor indigenous people alive so that these indigenous people would help them in the invasions because they knew how to get to the villages and the language.

So the fact that indigenous people managed to survive throughout the continent until the present does not refute the fact that all the colonists, regardless of their nationality, did feel hatred, contempt and repulsion for the indigenous people, and a sadistic pleasure in harming them.

The colonizer Bernal Diaz Del Castillo wrote in his book called True History of the Conquest of New Spain: - and that we had to go to war and load the ships with Indians from those islands to pay for the ship with Indians, to use them for slaves.

Another extract from the book by Bernan Diaz Del Castillo: - I say that all our works and victories are by the hand of Our Lord Jesus Christ, and that in that battle there were so many Indians for each of us that they would blind us with fistfuls of earth.

For this reason, all the colonizers believed that the hatred, domination and extermination of indigenous people was part of the plan of their Judeo-Christian god, and that the colonizers were guided by the Judeo-Christian god to punish the indigenous people and their children for their savagery and sexual immorality, and for being children of the serpent (devil) by worshiping gods with that shape just like the East Asians who have the same genetics.

Also, remember that the East Asians also had dragon-shaped gods equal to the gods of the indigenous ethnic groups of this continent with that shape (Quetzalcóatl, Kukulcan and Amaru), and for the colonizers this meant that they were races created by the devil, and who are cursed by their Judeo-Christian god to be hated, dominated, abused, subjugated and exterminated.

One more excerpt from the book written by this Spanish colonizer: -He ordered four shots to be taken from the brigs, and with them he waged war and killed and wounded many Indians.

Extract from True History of the Conquest of New Spain: - the Indians were doing sodomy with each other.

Extract from True History of the Conquest of New Spain: - Then Cortés said: Santiago, and to them. And in fact we attacked in such a way that we killed and wounded many of their people with gunshots.

Extract from True History of the Conquest of New Spain: - And since another day we all did it very manfully and we killed many opponents and twenty houses were burned.

Francisco López de Gómara, who was a Spanish chronicler who participated in the colonization, wrote in his book called General History of the Indies: - He pacified the Xaragua by burning forty main Indians and hanging the chief Guaorocuya.

Extract from General History of the Indies: - The Spaniards cut open many Indians with knives in wars, and even in mines, and tore down the idols from their altars, leaving none behind.

Letters and reports from Hernán Cortés to Emperor Charles V: - And when I startled them, they came out unarmed, and the women and children naked through the streets, and I began to do them some harm.

Letters and reports from Hernán Cortés to Emperor Charles V: -And before dawn I struck two towns, where I killed many people.

Letters and reports from Hernán Cortés to Emperor Charles V: - in his very real fortune God gave us so much victory that we killed many people.

Letters and reports from Hernán Cortés to Emperor Charles V: - I ordered them to take all fifty of them and cut off their hands, and I sent them to tell their lord that night and day, and each and every time he came, they would see who we were.

Letters and reports from Hernán Cortés to Emperor Charles V: - and we killed some of them, and those who remained threw themselves into the water, and we burned part of those towns; and so, we returned to the room with great pleasure and victory.

Letters and reports from Hernán Cortés to Emperor Charles V: -we have known and been informed with certainty that they are all sodomites and use that abominable sin.

In all the letters and books written by colonizers they accepted all the damage they did to the indigenous people who did not submit to domination. Only the defenders of colonization of the present are those who deny the atrocities committed and call them the Black Legend.

Furthermore, when they talk about the Black Legend it is something racist because they associate the color black with evil, in this case according to them with lies. The Black Legend does not exist, simply because colonizers and inquisitors accepted all the atrocities they committed.

When these criminals say that the victims were not as many as the Dalas Review and others do, it is irrelevant, it matters that there were victims and not the number. When they bring up the issue of the number of victims, it is to downplay what is important.

But, the Catholic Church and the Protestant Church have always used to remove blame from the fact that, although they ordered these tortures and murders, they handed over the victims to secular power, that is, to the royalty, the soldiers and the majority population.

For this reason, the church says that she did not murder anyone, but, although she did not carry out the actions directly, she was the intellectual author of those tortures and murders.

These church criminals made the bulls and gave the orders, and the secular power made them reality with actions. That is, that secular power (royalties, soldiers and the majority) were in charge of complying with the bulls and orders.

Royalty, soldiers and the majority serve Christianity, and in turn these political elites and religious elites are in power with the support of the majority.

Therefore, when these barbaric acts were committed in the name of Christianity, for the majority they were entertainment just as they consider hunting for pleasure and bullfighting to be entertaining.

This is where we see how the majority are sadistic by nature, and always direct their sadism at the weakest, the most vulnerable and the most innocent. For this reason, the majority are never victims of the political elites and religious elites, in reality, the majority are their servants.

Because, for example, a European peasant did not receive any economic gain from this, just as he did not receive any economic gain from the crusades, because only the king or queen and the pope had economic gains, but he did enjoy this and never revealed himself against it.

In Taoism: Yin is the feminine principle, the earth, darkness and passivity. Yang is the masculine principle, heaven, light and activity.

That's why in East Asian Taoism, light and darkness don't mean good and bad. In Taoism, light and darkness are two principles present in everything that exists and in everyone.

And moderation is making that balance between light and darkness in oneself.

For Taoism: Yin and Yang do not exist separately, but form a complete and harmonious whole. And the Tao is everything that exists in nature united as a whole, which both in East Asia and in the indigenous ethnic groups of this continent has been represented in a Creator.

Therefore, when it is said that the Creator is not evil and is not good, it is the same as saying that nature as a whole is not evil and is not good.

The Vietnamese dragon represents the power of nature that produces the rain that makes crops possible. Both the Chinese dragon and the Vietnamese dragon are the symbols of yang, which represents the universe, life, existence and growth (active principle of nature).

In the indigenous Mayan ethnic groups: Kukulcan (the feathered serpent) is the lord of the wind and rain.

Therefore, when to denigrate and promote hatred of these cultures: the Jews invent in the Torah (old testament) that the snake is the symbol of the devil, and the Christians that the dragon is the symbol of the devil in the apocalypse, Jews and their Christian children never understood the meaning of these symbols.

And that the shape of these deities in the shape of snakes or dragons are a representation of the shape of the riverbed and the shape of lightning:

Therefore, when the New Agers and conservatives who invent conspiracy theories claim that deities in the form of snakes or dragons represent reptilians, it is because these ignorant people do not understand the meaning of these deities who simply represented forces of the nature and not the nonsense they think.

Chang'e is a Chinese goddess of the moon, because she is the goddess of the moon she represents the Yin principle because the moon symbolizes darkness like the mother's womb and beneath the earth where seeds, night, rest, passivity and receptivity (the feminine principle of nature).

She is the same as the goddess Ixchel of the indigenous Mayan ethnic groups: she is the goddess of the moon, fertility and medicine. And both Chang'e and Ixchel have the rabbit as a symbol.

An indigenous woman who is a traitor said in a video that she does not want to have children and that is very good, it would be very good if all indigenous traitors and the majority who are not indigenous never had children.

And a Brazilian who is like the majority and ignorant like many Brazilians who are not indigenous, wrote in a comment that if the majority thought like her, humanity would become extinct, first of all, we humans are already eight thousand billion, so it is silly to talk about the extinction of humanity.

Majority does not mean the same as everyone, and both the indigenous traitors and the majority of humanity only cause pollution and destruction of the planet, and the majority of children do follow the example of their parents and the beliefs that their parents teach them, there are very few of us who make the exception.

This traitorous indigenous woman said in a video that war was waged between indigenous ethnic groups as if that only happened between indigenous ethnic groups. When before Christianity, the white races waged war against each other:

Battle of Aquae Sextiae (102 BC): The Romans under Gaius Marius defeated the Teutonic tribes in Gaul.

Battle of Vosges (58 BC): Julius Caesar defeated the Germanic tribes in Gaul during the Gallic Wars.

Battle of Plataea (479 BC): Greeks against Persians in Greece.

Battle of Leuctra (371 BC): Spartans against Thebans in Greece.

Battle of Ashdown (871): Alfred the Great and the Saxons against the Vikings in England.

Battle of Hjörungavágr (986): Naval battle between Haakon Sigurdsson of Norway and the Jomsborg Vikings in Norway.

And these are just a few examples. Seriously, when these traitorous indigenous people believe that the white races are peaceful and all loving, this is laughable and seems like a joke. 🤔🤔🤔

In all human races, wars, sacrifices and cruel acts have occurred, no one denies it, what is silly here is when these brainless people believe that this only happened to the indigenous people, and the thing is that non-indigenous races are the ones who destroy and contaminate the planet the most.
